Last Weapons Kevin Grant,2019-06-18 Last Weapons explains how the use of hunger strikes and fasts in political protest became a global phenomenon Exploring the proliferation of hunger as a form of protest between the late nineteenth and mid twentieth centuries Kevin Grant traces this radical tactic as it spread through trans imperial networks among revolutionaries and civil rights activists from Russia to Britain to Ireland to India and beyond He shows how the significance of hunger strikes and fasts refracted across political and cultural boundaries and how prisoners experienced and understood their own starvation which was then poorly explained by medical research Prison staff and political officials struggled to manage this challenge not only to their authority but to society s faith in the justice of liberal governance Whether starving for the vote or national liberation prisoners embodied proof of their own assertions that the rule of law enforced injustices that required redress and reform Drawing upon deep archival research the author offers a highly original examination of the role of hunger in contesting an imperial world a tactic that still resonates today

Intimate Relations Krupa Shandilya, 2017-01-15 Intimate Relations remaps the discussion on gender and the nation in South Asia through a close study of the domestic novel as a literary genre and a tool for social reform As a product of the intersection of literary and social reform movements in the late nineteenth century the domestic novel became a site for literary innovation and also for rethinking women s roles in society and politics Krupa Shandilya focuses primarily on social reform movements that negotiated the intimate relations between men and women in Hindu and Muslim society namely the widow remarriage act in Bengal 1856 and the education of women promoted by the Aligarh movement 1858 1900 Both movements were invested in recovering woman as a respectable subject for the Hindu and Muslim nation where respectability connoted asexual spirituality While most South Asian literary scholarship has focused on a normative Hindu woman Intimate Relations couples discussion of the representation of the widow in bhadralok upper caste middle class society with that of the courtesan of sharif upper class Muslim feudal society in Bengali and Urdu novels from the 1880s to the 1920s By drawing together their disparate histories in the context of contemporaneous social reform movements Shandilya reflects on the similarities of Hindu and Islamic constructions of the gendered nation
