Laura Cottingham, 2020-10-15 In Rainer Werner Fassbinder's Fear Eats the Soul Angst Essen Seele Auf 1974 Emma Brigitte Mira a working class widow and former member of the Nazi party marries Ali El Hedi ben Salem a much younger Moroccan migrant worker Set in Munich during the 1970s the film melds the conventions of melodrama with a radical sensibility to present a portrait of racism and everyday hypocrisy in post war Germany It is a film about the way conventional society detests anything and anybody unfamiliar but also a film about the hopes and limits of love Intricately directed beautifully performed and designed to show Munich life in all its shabby kitschiness Fear Eats the Soul may be Fassbinder's finest film Laura Cottingham celebrates Fassbinder's achievement placing Fear Eats the Soul in relation to his extraordinarily prolific career in theatre film and television Her analysis pulls back the thin curtain that separated his work from his tumultuous life She also explores the director's debt to the lush Hollywood melodramas made by fellow German Douglas Sirk especially All That Heaven Allows 1955 In a detailed scene by scene analysis Cottingham shows how Fassbinder managed to combine beauty and tenderness with fierce political critique The Illuminated Theatre Joe

Kelleher, 2015-05-08 What sort of thing is a theatre image How is it produced and consumed Who is responsible for the images Why do the images stay with us when the performance is over How do we learn to speak of what we see and imagine And how do we relate what we experience in the theatre to what we share with each other of the world The Illuminated Theatre is a book about theatricality and spectatorship in the early twenty first century In a wide ranging analysis that draws upon theatrical visual and philosophical approaches it asks how spectators and audiences negotiate the complexities and challenges of contemporary experimental performance arts It is also a book about how European practitioners working across a range of forms from theatre and performance to dance opera film and visual arts use images to address the complexities of the times in which their work takes place Through detailed and impassioned accounts of works by artists such as Dickie Beau Wendy Houston Alvis Hermanis and Romeo Castellucci along with close readings of experimental theoretical and art writing from Gillian Rose to T J Clark and Marie Jos Mondzain the book outlines the historical aesthetic and political dimensions of a contemporary suffering of images Pasolini, Fassbinder and Europe Fabio Vighi, 2010-08-11 The present collection of essays brings into dialogue Pier Paolo Pasolini 1922 1975 and Rainer Werner Fassbinder 1945 1982 by comparing their cultural and intellectual legacy Pasolini and Fassbinder are amongst the last radical filmmakers to have emerged in Europe Born in Italy and Germany they inherited a traumatic social and political past which is reflected in their works through a number of similarly articulated and unresolved tensions high and popular cultures theatre literature and cinema ideology and narration major and minor codes of expression The essays in this book examine the uncompromising character of Pasolini's and Fassbinder's films Constantly oscillating between utopia and nihilism these works invite us to reconsider subjective and collective questions which from today's perspective seem lost forever Abel Ferrara Nicole Brenez, 2006-12-20 Nicole Brenez argues for Abel Ferrara's place in a line of grand inventors who have blurred distinctions between industry and avant garde film including Orson Welles Monte Hellman and Nicholas Ray Rather than merely reworking genre film Brenez understands Ferrara's oeuvre as formulating new archetypes that depict the evil of the modern world Focusing as much on the human figure as on elements of storytelling she argues that films such as Bad Lieutenant express this evil through visionary characters struggling against the inadmissible inadmissible behavior morality images and narratives
