Alexander Twilight Michael T. Hahn,1998 A biography of the noted educator who was the first African American to graduate from an American college and the first to serve on a state legislature Discovering Black Vermont Elise A. Guyette,2010 The search for an African American community in rural Vermont A State-by-State History of Race and Racism in the United States Patricia Reid-Merritt,2018-12-07 Providing chronologies of important events historical narratives from the first settlement to the present and biographies of major figures this work offers readers an unseen look at the history of racism from the perspective of individual states From the initial impact of European settlement on indigenous populations to the racial divides caused by immigration and police shootings in the 21st century each American state has imposed some form of racial restriction on its residents The United States proclaims a belief in freedom and justice for all but members of various minority racial groups have often faced a different reality as seen in such examples as the forcible dispossession of indigenous peoples during the Trail of Tears Jim Crow laws crushing discrimination of blacks and the manifest unfairness of the Chinese Exclusion Act Including the District of Columbia the 51 entries in these two volumes cover the state specific histories of all of the major minority and immigrant groups in the United States including African Americans Hispanics Asian Americans and Native Americans Every state has had a unique experience in attempting to build a community comprising multiple racial groups and the chronologies narratives and biographies that compose the entries in this collection explore the consequences of racism from states perspectives revealing distinct new insights into their respective racial histories Amherst in the World Martha Saxton,2020-09-11 In celebration of the 200th anniversary of Amherst College a group of scholars and alumni explore the school s substantial past in this volume Amherst in the World tells the story of how an institution that was founded to train Protestant ministers began educating new generations of industrialists bankers and political leaders with the decline in missionary ambitions after the Civil War The contributors trace how what was a largely white school throughout the interwar years begins diversifying its student demographics after World War II and the War in Vietnam The histories told here illuminate how Amherst has contended with slavery wars religion coeducation science curriculum town and gown relations governance and funding during its two centuries of existence Through Amherst s engagement with educational improvement in light of these historical undulations it continually affirms both the vitality and the utility of a liberal arts education Contributions by Martha Saxton Gary J Kornblith David W Wills Frederick E Hoxie Trent Maxey Nicholas L Syrett Wendy H Bergoffen Rick L pez Matthew Alexander Randolph Daniel Levinson Wilk K Ian Shin David S Reynolds Jane F Thrailkill Julie Dobrow Richard F Teichgraeber III Debby Applegate Michael E Jirik Bruce Laurie Molly Michelmores and Christian G Appy The African American Electorate Hanes Walton Jr,Sherman Puckett,Donald R Deskins Jr,2012-07-20 This pioneering work brings together for the first time in a single reference work all of the extant fugitive and recently discovered registration data on African American voters from Colonial

America to the present It features election returns for African American presidential senatorial congressional and gubernatorial candidates over time Rich insightful narrative explains the data and traces the history of the laws dealing with the enfranchisement and disenfranchisement of African Americans Topics covered include The contributions of statistical pioneers including Monroe Work W E B DuBois and Ralph Bunche African American organizations like the NAACP and National Equal Rights League NERL Pioneering African American officeholders including the few before the Civil War Four influxes of African American voters Reconstruction Southern African American men the Fifteenth Amendment African American men across the country the Nineteenth Amendment African American female voters in 1920 election and the Voting Rights Act of 1965 The historical development of disenfranchisement in the South and the statistical impact of the tools of disenfranchisement literacy clauses poll taxes and grandfather clauses The African American Electorate features more than 300 tables 150 figures and 50 maps many of which have been created exclusively for this work using demographic voter registration election return and racial precinct data that have never been collected and assembled for the public An appendix includes popular and electoral voting data for African American presidential congressional and gubernatorial candidates and a comprehensive bibliography indicates major topic areas and eras concerning the African American electorate The African American Electorate offers students and researchers the opportunity for the first time to explore the relationship between voters and political candidates identify critical variables and situate African Americans voting behavior and political phenomena in the context of America s political history

Abolition & the Underground Railroad in Vermont
Michelle Arnosky Sherburne, 2021-04-19 Many believe that support for the abolition of slavery was universally accepted in Vermont but it was actually a fiercely divisive issue that rocked the Green Mountain State In the midst of turbulence and violence though some brave Vermonters helped fight for the freedom of their enslaved Southern brethren Thaddeus Stevens one of abolition s most outspoken advocates was a Vermont native Delia Webster the first woman arrested for aiding a fugitive slave was also a Vermonter The Rokeby house in Ferrisburgh was a busy Underground Railroad station for decades Peacham s Oliver Johnson worked closely with William Lloyd Garrison during the abolition movement Discover the stories of these and others in Vermont who risked their own lives to help more than four thousand slaves to freedom

The First Reconstruction
Van Gosse, 2021-01-05 It may be difficult to imagine that a consequential black electoral politics evolved in the United States before the Civil War for as of 1860 the overwhelming majority of African Americans remained in bondage Yet free black men many of them escaped slaves steadily increased their influence in electoral politics over the course of the early American republic Despite efforts to disfranchise them black men voted across much of the North sometimes in numbers sufficient to swing elections In this meticulously researched book Van Gosse offers a sweeping reappraisal of the formative era of American democracy from the Constitution s ratification through Abraham Lincoln s election chronicling the rise of an organized visible black politics focused on the quest for citizenship the vote and power within the free states Full of untold stories and thorough examinations of political battles this book traces a First Reconstruction of black political activism following emancipation in the North From Portland Maine and New Bedford Massachusetts to Brooklyn and Cleveland black men operated as voting blocs denouncing the notion that skin color could define citizenship Forgotten African American Firsts Hans Ostrom, J. David Macey Jr., 2023-03-16 Winner of the 2024 RUSA Outstanding Reference Award This book introduces students to African American innovators and their contributions to art entertainment sports politics religion business and popular culture While the achievements of such individuals as Barack Obama Toni Morrison and Thurgood Marshall are well known many accomplished African Americans have been largely forgotten or deliberately erased from the historical record in America This volume introduces students to those African Americans whose successes in entertainment business sports politics and other fields remain poorly understood Dr Charles Drew whose pioneering research on blood transfusions saved thousands of lives during World War II Mae Jemison an engineer who in 1992 became the first African American woman to travel in outer space and Ethel Waters the first African American to star in her own television show are among those chronicled in Forgotten African American Firsts With nearly 150 entries across 17 categories this book has been carefully curated to showcase the inspiring stories of African Americans whose hard work courage and talent have led the course of history in the United States and around the world Race and Ethnicity in America Russell M.

Lawson, Benjamin A. Lawson, 2019-10-11 Divided into four volumes Race and Ethnicity in America provides a complete overview of the history of racial and ethnic relations in America from pre contact to the present The five hundred years since Europeans made contact with the indigenous peoples of America have been dominated by racial and ethnic tensions During the colonial period from 1500 to 1776 slavery and servitude of whites blacks and Indians formed the foundation for race and ethnic relations After the American Revolution slavery labor inequalities and immigration led to racial and ethnic tensions after the Civil War labor inequalities immigration and the fight for civil rights dominated America's racial and ethnic experience From the 1960s to the present the unfulfilled promise of civil rights for all ethnic and racial groups in America has been the most important sociopolitical issue in America Race and Ethnicity in America tells this story of the fight for equality in America The first volume spans pre contact to the American Revolution the second the American Revolution to the Civil War the third Reconstruction to the Civil Rights Movement and the fourth the Civil Rights Movement to the present All volumes explore the culture society labor war and politics and cultural expressions of racial and ethnic groups

Dissenting Forces Michael E. Jirik, 2025-11-18 A history of enslaved people and abolitionists who fought racism on college campuses and reimagined higher learning Since their inception in North America universities have had symbiotic ties to racial slavery and settler colonialism and were incubators of racist thought In Dissenting Forces Michael E Jirik offers a comprehensive study of an underrepresented history the rise and development of Black thought and abolitionist resistance in American universities Jirik offers a rich scope of abolitionist protests at colleges demonstrating how enslaved people Black abolitionists and student abolitionists resisted enslavement and racism within and on the boundaries of college campuses for centuries. Studying their history and experiences, Black people used intellectual work to advance their struggle for liberation. With the advent of a transformed abolition movement after 1830, Black and white student abolitionists intellectually fought colonizationists on campus to shape arguments for Black freedom and intellectuality that challenged dominant white supremacist ideologies. In turn, they created a student movement for Black freedom and human equality, making demands for admissions into colleges and creating the earliest Black colleges in the United States. Demonstrating the ways Black people have resisted racism and forms of oppression in higher learning, Dissenting Forces sheds new light on the significance of Black self-determination and the continuity of Black knowledge traditions committed to creating a different world. Collectively, they developed an idea of Black education's liberatory potential.
