Alfredo Jaar The Fire This Time Public Interventions 1979-2005:

Alfredo Jaar : la politique des images Alfredo Jaar, 2007 Spanning from the 1970s until today this compelling new monograph traces the development of the respected Chilean born New York based conceptualist from his earliest public interventions to his latest installations Some of the highly political subjects range from the plight of Amazonian gold miners to the 1994 genocide in Rwanda and there are several previously unpublished works that the artist created in his hometown of Santiago during Pinochet's repressive military dictatorship as well as numerous works made by collating and rethinking press clippings Working with public interventions installations photography and video Jaar examines the nature of images and their viewers relationships to them His work tackles the very possibility of producing art based on events that we would prefer to ignore and of creating images in a context characterized both by their over abundance and paradoxically by their invisibility Texts by art historians Georges Didi Huberman Griselda Pollock and Nicole Schweizer and philosopher Jacques Rancière

Portable Borders Ila Nicole Sheren, 2015-08-15 After World War II the concept of borders became unsettled especially after the rise of subaltern and multicultural studies in the 1980s Art at the U S Mexico border came to a turning point at the beginning of that decade with the election of U S President Ronald Reagan Beginning with a political history of the border with an emphasis on the Chicano movement and its art production Ila Sheren explores the forces behind the shift in thinking about the border in the late twentieth century Particularly in the world of visual art borders have come to represent a space of performance rather than a geographical boundary a cultural terrain meant to be negotiated rather than a physical line From 1980 forward Sheren argues the border became portable through performance and conceptual work This dematerialization of the physical border after the 1980s worked in two opposite directions the movement of border thinking to the rest of the world as well as the importation of ideas to the border itself Beginning with site specific conceptual artwork of the 1980s particularly the performances of the Border Art Workshop Taller de Arte Fronterizo Sheren shows how these works reconfigured the border as an active site Sheren moves on to examine artists such as Guillermo Gmez Pe a Coco Fusco and Marcos Ramirez ERRE Although Sheren places emphasis on the Chicano movement and its art production this groundbreaking book suggests possibilities for the expansion of the concept of portability to contemporary art projects beyond the region

Australian and New Zealand Journal of Art, 2006

What Is Contemporary Art? Terry E. Smith, 2009-10-15 Who gets to say what counts as contemporary art Artists critics curators gallerists auctioneers collectors or the public Revealing how all of these groups have shaped today's multifaceted definition Terry Smith brilliantly shows that an historical approach offers the best answer to the question What is Contemporary Art Smith argues that the most recognizable kind is characterized by a return to mainstream modernism in the work of such artists as Richard Serra and Gerhard Richter as well as the retro sensationalism of figures like Damien Hirst and Takashi Murakami At the same time Smith reveals postcolonial artists are engaged in a different kind of practice one that builds on local concerns and tackles questions of identity history and globalization A younger generation embodies yet a third approach to contemporaneity by investigating time place mediation and ethics through small scale closely connective art making Inviting readers into these diverse yet overlapping art worlds Smith offers a behind the scenes introduction to the institutions the personalities the biennials and of course the works that together are defining the contemporary The resulting map of where art is now illuminates not only where it has been but also where it is going Constructing a Poetic Universe Beverly Adams,2007 Published to accompany an exhibition at The Museum of Fine Arts Houston March June 2007 Jaar SCL 2006 Alfredo Jaar,2006 Chilean Artist Alfredo Jaar Opens a Frank Dialogue About his work and his Future A re encounter with Chilean audiences after an absence of twenty five years this is an anthology of works better known to the rest of the world than to his native country A frank demanding dialogue with a new public and a new generation of intellectuals Jaar s work evolves as he continually shapes and renews his poetic thinking on such themes as the contemporary status of images the role of artists and intellectuals in society and aesthetics of resistance Memorias Visuales Adriana Valdés,2006 Qu puede encontrar aquí un lector interesado en el arte actual de Chile No son estos los escritos de un artista según T S Eliot los poetas no aprecian a otros poetas si lo hicieran tendrían el mismo proyecto No son tampoco los de un galerista que busca sobre todo entusiasmar a un posible comprador con nimo de armar una colección No son tampoco como los de los curadores que muchas veces arman una narrativa propia en la que las obras tienen apenas el papel de una ilustración Una aproximación a lo que esta escritura es tendr a que ver tal vez con el amargo y fascinante ejercicio de traducir Esta vez no de un idioma a otro sino de un trabajo de pensamiento que se hace con lo material y lo visible a otro trabajo de pensamiento hecho con palabras Sabiendo siempre que con palabras no se puede realmente llegar a las obras sabiendo que no se da nunca perfectamente en el blanco En el mejor de los casos se hace un gesto que de alguna manera corresponde a la obra En el mejor de los casos se logra abrir un buen espacio de conversación en torno a ella
