Xuma Steven D. Gish,2000 Alfred B. Xuma, 1893-1962: African, American, South African Steven D. Gish,1994 Alfred B. Xuma, 1893-1962 Steven Gish,1994 The Life of Madie Hall Xuma Wanda A. Hendricks,2022-10-25 Revered in South Africa as An African American Mother of the Nation Madie Beatrice Hall Xuma spent her extraordinary life immersed in global women s activism Wanda A Hendricks s biography follows Hall Xuma from her upbringing in the Jim Crow South to her leadership role in the African National Congress ANC and beyond Hall Xuma was already known for her social welfare work when she married South African physician and ANC activist Alfred Bitini Xuma Becoming president of the ANC Women s League put Hall Xuma at the forefront of fighting racial discrimination as South Africa moved toward apartheid Hendricks provides the long overlooked context for the events that undergirded Hall Xuma s life and work As she shows a confluence of history ideas and organizations both shaped Hall Xuma and centered her in the histories of Black women and women s activism and of South Africa and the United States A History of South African Literature Christopher Heywood,2004-11-18 This book is a critical study of South African literature from colonial and pre colonial times onwards Christopher Heywood discusses selected poems plays and prose works in five literary traditions Khoisan Nguni Sotho Afrikaans English and Indian The discussion includes over 100 authors and selected works including poets from Mqhayi Marais and Campbell to Butler Serote and Krog theatre writers from Boniface and Black to Fugard and Mda and fiction writers from Schreiner and Plaatje to Bessie Head and the Nobel prizewinners Gordimer and Coetzee The literature is explored in the setting of crises leading to the formation of modern South Africa notably the rise and fall of the Emperor Shaka s Zulu kingdom the Colenso crisis industrialisation the colonial and post colonial wars of 1899 1914 and 1939 and the dissolution of apartheid society In Heywood s study South African literature emerges as among the great literatures of the modern world Amy Biehl's Last Home Steven D. Gish,2018-06-13 In 1993 white American Fulbright scholar Amy Biehl was killed in a racially motivated attack near Cape Town after spending months working to promote democracy and women s rights in South Africa The ironic circumstances of her death generated enormous international publicity and yielded one of South Africa s most heralded stories of postapartheid reconciliation Amy s parents not only established a humanitarian foundation to serve the black township where she was killed but supported amnesty for her killers and hired two of the young men to work for the Amy Biehl Foundation The Biehls were hailed as heroes by Nelson Mandela Desmond Tutu and many others in South Africa and the United States but their path toward healing was neither quick nor easy Granted unrestricted access to the Biehl family s papers Steven Gish brings Amy and the Foundation to life in ways that have eluded previous authors He is the first to place

Biehl's story in its full historical context while also presenting a gripping portrait of this remarkable young woman and the aftermath of her death across two continents Josie Mpama/Palmer Robert R. Edgar, 2020-04-22 While African National Congress narratives dominate much of the scholarship on South Africa's freedom struggle Josie Mpama Palmer's political life offers a different perspective Highly critical of the patriarchal attitudes that hindered black women from actively participating in politics Mpama Palmer was an outspoken advocate for women's social equality and encouraged black women to become more involved in national conversations The first black woman to join the Communist Party of South Africa and an anti-apartheid activist Josie Mpama Palmer remained involved in critical issues all her life especially protests against Bantu Education and other forms of racial and sexist discrimination She was an integral figure in establishing the Federation of South African Women an organization open to women of all races Mpama Palmer's activism and political legacy would become an inspiring example for women in South Africa and around the world to get up and get moving Colour Bar Susan Williams, 2007-06-07 Sir Seretse Khama the first President of Botswana and heir apparent to the kingship of the Bangwato people brought independence and great prosperity to his nation after colonial rule But for six long years from 1950 Seretse had been forced into exile in England banned from his own country His crime To fall in love and marry a young white English girl Ruth Williams Delving into newly released records Susan Williams tells Seretse and Ruth's story a shocking account of how the British Government conspired with apartheid South Africa to prevent the mixed race royal couple returning home But it is also an inspiring triumphant tale of hope courage and true love as with tenacity and great dignity Seretse and Ruth and the Bangwato people overcome prejudice in their fight for justice Max Yergan David Henry Anthony, 2006 In his long and fascinating life black activist and intellectual Max Yergan 1892-1975 traveled on more ground both literally and figuratively than any of his impressive contemporaries which included Adam Clayton Powell Paul Robeson W E B Du Bois and A Phillip Randolph Yergan rose through the ranks of the colored work department of the YMCA and was among the first black YMCA missionaries in South Africa His exposure to the brutality of colonial white rule in South Africa caused him to veer away from mainstream liberal civil rights organizations and by the mid 1930s into the orbit of the Communist Party A mere decade later Cold War hysteria and intimidation pushed Yergan away from progressive politics and increasingly toward conservatism In his later years he even became an apologist for apartheid Drawing on personal interviews and extensive archival research David H Anthony has written much more than a biography of this enigmatic leader In following the winding road of Yergan's life Anthony offers a tour through the complex and interrelated political and institutional movements that have shaped the history of the black world from the United States to South Africa
