Stanton,2012 In our age of globalization and multiculturalism it has never been more important to understand and appreciate all cultures across the world The four volumes take a step forward in this endeavour by presenting concise information on those regions least well known to students across Europe the Middle East Asia and Africa

The volumes convey what daily life is like for people in these selected regions. Entries will aid readers in understanding the importance of cultural sociology to appreciate the effects of cultural forces around the world and to learn the history of countries and cultures within these important regions. Key Features: Topics are explored within historical context in three broad historical periods: prehistory to 1250, 1250 to 1920, and 1920 to the present. One volume each is devoted to the regions of the Middle East and Africa, and then one volume to East and Southeast Asia, and a final volume to West Central and South Asia. The volumes include extensive use of photographs and maps to explain cultural and geographic content. Each volume has its own volume editor with expertise in that particular region. Key Themes: Arts, Culture, and Science; People, Society, and Dynasties; Religion and Law; Family and Daily Life; Conflicts and Wars; Politics and Government; Health and Education; Economy, Trade, and Industry; National Geography and History.

Encyclopedia of Islam Juan Eduardo Campo, 2009. Explores the terms, concepts, personalities, historical events, and institutions that helped shape the history of this religion and the way it is practiced today.

Why Only Islam Syed H. Jaffar, 2010-11. Never before has a book like WHY ONLY ISLAM: the Summation of the coalition of teams of dedicated people worldwide. JAFFAR concludes: can we achieve PEACE ISLAM ON EARTH? It is up to us.

We Are Not Alone in the Universe Konrad Kulczyk, 2012-10-26. We are not alone in the universe; it considers the questions such as: why are intelligent beings interfering in human affairs? what are their objectives? and what is the purpose of human life? P. 4 of cover.

The Muslim World in the 21st Century Samiul Hasan, 2012-01-15. Islam is not only a religion but also a culture, tradition, and civilization. There are currently 1.5 billion people in the world who identify themselves as Muslim. Two-thirds of the worldwide Muslim population, i.e., approximately a billion people, live in forty-eight Muslim majority countries (MMCs) in the world, all of which except one are in Africa and Asia. Of these MMCs in Africa and Asia, only twelve, inhabited by about 165 million people, have ever achieved a high score on the Human Development Index (HDI), the index that measures life expectancy at birth, education, and standard of living, and ranks how developed a country is. This means that the majority of the world's Muslim population lives in poverty with a low or medium level of human development. The contributions to this innovative volume attempt to determine why this is. They explore the influence of environment, space, and power on human development. The result is a complex interdisciplinary study of all MMCs in Africa and Asia. It offers new insights into the current state of the Muslim World and provides a theoretical framework for studying human development from an interdisciplinary social, cultural, economic, environmental, political, and religious perspective, which will be applicable to regional and cultural studies of space and power in other regions of the world.

The Global Muslim Brotherhood in Britain Damon Perry, 2018-07-17. Since 2011, with the British Government's counter-radicalisation strategy, Prevent, non-violent Islamist groups have been considered a security risk for spreading a divisive ideology that can lead to radicalisation and violence. More recently, the Government has expressed concerns about their impact on social cohesion, entryism, and women's rights. The key protagonists of non-violent Islamist extremism allegedly include groups and individuals associated with the Muslim Brotherhood and Jama'at al-Islami. They have been described as part of the global Muslim Brotherhood but do they constitute a singular phenomenon a social movement This book shows that such groups and individuals do indeed comprise a movement in Britain one dedicated to an Islamic revival It shows how they are networked organisationally bonded through ideological and cultural kinship and united in a conflict of values with the British society and state Using original interviews with prominent revivalist leaders as well as primary sources the book also shows how the movement is not so much Islamist in aspiring for an Islamic state but concerned with institutionalising an Islamic worldview and moral framework throughout society The conflict between the Government and the global Muslim Brotherhood is apparent in a number of different fields including education governance law and counterterrorism But this does not simply concern the direction of Government policy or the control of state institutions It most fundamentally concerns the symbolic authority to legitimise a way of seeing thinking and living By assessing this multifaceted conflict the book presents an exhaustive and up to date analysis of the political and cultural fault lines between Islamic revivalists and the British authorities It will be useful for anyone studying Islam in the West government counter terrorism and counter extremism policy multiculturalism and social cohesion Readings in Western Religious Thought: The Middle Ages through the Reformation Patrick V. Reid, 1987

The Oxford Dictionary of Islam John L. Esposito, 2004-10-21 The dictionary focuses primarily on the 19th and 20th centuries stressing topics of most interest to Westerners What emerges is a highly informative look at the religious political and social spheres of the modern Islamic world Naturally readers will find many entries on topics of intense current interest such as terrorism and the Taliban Osama bin Laden and al Qaida the PLO and HAMAS But the coverage goes well beyond recent headlines There are biographical profiles ranging from Naguib Mahfouz the Nobel Prize winner from Egypt to Malcolm X including political leaders influential thinkers poets scientists and writers Other entries cover major political movements militant groups and religious sects as well as terms from Islamic law culture and religion key historical events and important landmarks such as Mecca and Medina A series of entries looks at Islam in individual nations such as Afghanistan the West Bank and Gaza Bosnia Herzegovina and the United States and the
