In the decades since the original calendars were produced, several research aids have become available, notably various reference works and the digitization of important newspapers and relevant periodicals. The second edition of The London Stage 1950-1959: A Calendar of Productions, Performers, and Personnel provides a chronological calendar of London shows from the first of January 1950 through the 31st of December 1959. The volume chronicles more than 3,100 productions at 52 major central London theatres during this period. For each production, the following information is provided: Title, Author, Theatre, Performers, Personnel, Opening and Closing Dates, Number of Performances. Other details include genre of the production, number of acts, and a list of reviews. A comment section includes other interesting information such as plot description, first night reception by the audience, noteworthy performances, staging elements, and details of performances in New York either prior to or after the London production.
