Ants Will Not Eat Your Fingers:

Ants Will Not Eat Your Fingers Leonard William Doob, 1966 Art Song in the United States, 1759-1999 Judith E.

Carman, William K. Gaeddert, Rita M. Resch, 2001-12-04 Originally created as a teaching tool this bibliography has taken on a second life as a research tool for various facets of American art song including in this edition both current and historical discography

Bending the Bow Frank M Chipasula, 2009-08-05 From the ancient Egyptian inventors of the love lyric to contemporary poets Bending the Bow An Anthology of African Love Poetry gathers together both written and sung love poetry from Africa This anthology is a work of literary archaeology that lays bare a genre of African poetry that has been overshadowed by political poetry Frank Chipasula has assembled a historically and geographically comprehensive wealth of African love poetry that spans more than three thousand years By collecting a continent's celebrations and explorations of the nature of love he expands African literature into the sublime territory of the heart Bending the Bow traces the development of African love poetry from antiquity to modernity while establishing a cross millennial dialogue The anonymously written love poems from Pharaonic Egypt that open the anthology both predate Biblical love poetry and reveal the longevity of written love poetry in Africa The middle section is devoted to sung love poetry from all regions of the continent These great works serve as the foundation for modern poetry and testify to love poetry's omnipresence in Africa The final section showcasing forty eight modern African poets celebrates the genre's continuing vitality Among those represented are Muyaka bin Hajji and Shaaban Robert two major Swahili poets Gabriel Okara the innovative though underrated Nigerian poet Leopold Sedar Senghor the first president of Senegal and a founder of the Negritude Movement in francophone African literature Rashidah Ismaili from Benin Flavien Ranaivo from Madagascar and Gabeba Baderoon from South Africa Ranging from the subtly suggestive to the openly erotic this collection highlights love's endurance in a world too often riven by contention Bending the Bow bears testimony to poetry's role as conciliator while opening up a new area of study for scholars and students

A Singer's Guide to the American Art Song: 1870-1980 Victoria Etnier

Villamil, 2004-10-05 New in Paperback 2004 Probably the most comprehensive work on the American art song ever available this book considers the lives and contributions of 144 significant composers in the field including many for whom information has been extremely scarce Most composers' entries consist of a biographical sketch a brief discussion of his or her song writing characteristics with emphasis on performers' concerns a partial or complete listing of annotated songs recording information and the composer's individual bibliography Song annotations include poet publisher date of composition when known voice type range duration tempo indication mood subject matter vocal style special difficulties general impression artists who have recorded the song and any other pertinent information Thirty composers whose contributions are deemed of lesser import are summarized in brief essays Appendixes include a supplement of recommended songs a listing of American song anthologies and their contents and the most recent information regarding publishers cited in the guide There is also a general discography a general bibliography and indexes for both titles and poets Documenting the most important 110 years in the development of American art song this book is an indispensable tool for singers teachers coaches accompanists and libraries

The Poem in the Story Harold Scheub, 2002-12-05 Fact and fiction meet at the boundaries the betwixt and between where transformations occur This is the area of ambiguity where fiction and fact become endowed with meaning and this is the area where ambiguity irony and metaphor join forces that Harold Scheub exposes in all its nuanced and evocative complexity in The Poem in the Story In a career devoted to exploring the art of the African storyteller Scheub has conducted some of the most interesting and provocative investigations into nonverbal aspects of storytelling the complex relationship between artist and audience and most dramatically the role played by poetry in storytelling This book is his most daring effort yet an unconventional work that searches out what makes a story artistically engaging and emotionally evocative the metaphorical center that Scheub calls the poem in the story Drawing on extensive fieldwork in southern Africa and decades of experience as a researcher and teacher Scheub develops an original approach a blend of field notes diary entries photographs and texts of stories and poems that guides readers into a new way of viewing even experiencing meaning in a story Though this work is largely focused on African storytelling its universal applications emerge when Scheub brings the work of storytellers as different as Shakespeare and Faulkner into the discussion

Ethnosensitive Dimensions of African Oral Literature Ebeogu, Afam, 2017-05-25 Ethnosensitive Dimensions of African Oral Literature Igbo Perspectives is a collection of nineteen essays spanning all genres of African Oral literature from the poetic genre to the rhetorical genre Part One of the book is introductory and includes three essays that are of a general kind touching all aspects of the genres while Part Two includes six essays concerned with the poetic genre Part Three made up of two essays and concern the prose genre while Part Four of two essays examines the drama genre Part Five made up of three essays addresses the rhetorical genre and Part Six has three essays that cut across all the genres The contributions examine the implications of ethnocentric imperatives of oral literature in relation to nationalistic demands

Stewart's Quotable Africa Julia Stewart, 2012-10-02 The African continent is home to spectacularly expressive human beings rebellious anti colonial and opposition leaders eloquent novelists political and social activists comical geniuses pensive and philosophical poets and intellectuals as well as a few raving dictators And the body of proverbial wisdom from Africa alone could fill many volumes Despite being eminently quotable Africa is not so readily quoted Stewart's Quotable Africa covers the whole of Africa north to south and east to west and includes memorable statements from hundreds of speakers including Nelson Mandela Doris Lessing Chinua Achebe Julius Nyerere Kofi Annan among others as well as biblical passages and proverbs Julia Stewart has spent over a decade collecting the 5000 plus quotes found in this book all of them either by Africans or about African subjects
