Big Rain Coming Katrina Germein, 1999 Though everyone eagerly awaits the rain it is slow in coming Myths and Tales of the White Mountain Apache Grenville Goodwin, Philip J. Greenfeld, 2015-11-27 This volume contains translations of Apache stories that reflect our distinct view of the world and our approach to life These myths and fables have survived through untold generations because the truth contained in them is eternal and the moral lessons that they teach are still valid You can read these stories and catch a glimpse of how our ancestors observed nature drew metaphors from everyday observations and happenings and applied the lessons learned to everyday life Read them and you will see how harmony with nature and the natural world is the goal of every Apache Ronnie Lupe Tribal Chairman White Mountain Apache Tribe These fifty seven tales with seven variants gathered between 1931 and 1936 include major cycles dealing with Creation and Coyote minor tales and additional stories derived from Spanish and Mexican tradition The tales are of two classes holy tales said by some to explain the origin of ceremonies and holy powers and tales which have to do with the creation of the earth the emergence the flood the slaying of monsters and the origin of customs As Grenville Goodwin was the first anthropologist to work with the White Mountain Apache his insights remain a primary source on this people Yarrtji Sonja Peter, Pamela Lofts, 1997 A biography of six Aboriginal women and their stories from the Great Sandy Desert region Streets of Nashville Michael Amos Cody, 2025-04-15 In Streets of Nashville Ezra MacRae has a nearly encyclopedic knowledge of songs and their writers and he has moved from the North Carolina mountains to Nashville s Music Row with the dream of becoming part of that songwriting world Yet just as he is out on the town to celebrate his first good fortune after several years of trying a staff songwriting contract with an independent music publisher he witnesses the man who signed on the dotted lines with him gunned down with three others outside his Music Row office The masked gunman spares Ezra But why Conservation and Improvement of Sloping Lands, Volume 3 P. J. Storey, 2011-02-01 Volume 3 takes the subject of better land husbandry further The book first points out the sort of things which have been and are being used but are failing to deliver what is required It then explains the causes of erosion the theory and practice of soil and water conservation and practical and lasting ways to construct terraces including su Recolonizing Africa Mariam Mniga, 2024-03-19 Explaining how the legacy of colonialism and the nature of the liberal economy play a significant role in the development of Africa today keeping Africa poor and dependent this book explains how trade liberalization deregulation and privatization had opened doors for the New Scramble for Africa Green technology and the high demand for electronics have intensified Africa s role as a supplier of raw materials natural resources and cheap labor and as a large market of more than one billion people in the global economy This unique ethnographic study with elements of autoethnography starts with the author s journey to Bulyanhulu Tanzania one of the largest gold mines in Africa and moves to a broader analysis that reveals the systemic violence of resource extraction Focus groups interviews and observations demonstrate the lack of distributive justice and intersectional equality in the process of land acquisition and resource extraction described by villagers in racialized and gendered terms as exploitative and part of a racist system that fails to provide a fair distribution of benefits to local people. Recolonizing Africa examines resource conflicts among local people, governments, and transnational corporations from Europe, North America, and Asia, revealing how global systemic violence and irresponsible business practices precipitate economic inequality between African and financially rich nations, threatening peace and security, indigenous rights, and the environment.
