Drivers Of Competitiveness Diego Comin, 2016-03-08 In this day and age technology has become ever more prominent and omnipresent in our lives As technological developments emerge and become more ubiquitous it becomes vital to understand and analyze the impact of technology on society Drivers of Competitiveness focuses on technology and seeks to analyze its causes and consequences on productivity and competitiveness and to examine the dynamic relationships between the different factors in various contexts Building on state of the art research the book illustrates the global institutional and technological factors that shape the performance of business and countries Unlike most existing books in the field Drivers of Competitiveness is a self contained case book ideal for classroom use The cases in the book are brand new All of them are written in the context of the global financial crisis providing a new perspective on the crisis that sheds light on its effect on competitiveness and on the diversity of responses by companies and countries The cases and the analytical framework that emerges from the book constitute an essential kit for current and future managers policy makers and observers of global dynamics

The Colour of Our Future Xolela Mangcu, 2015-07-01 South Africa is ready for a new vocabulary than can form the basis for a national consciousness which recognises racialised identities while affirming that as human beings we are much more than our racial sexual class religious or national identities The Colour of Our Future makes a bold and ambitious contribution to the discourse on race It addresses the tension between the promise of a post racial society and the persistence of racialised identities in South Africa which has historically played itself out in debates between the I don t see race of non racialism and the I m proud to be black of black consciousness The chapters in this volume highlight the need for a race transcendent vision that moves beyond the festival of negatives embodied in concepts such as non racialism non sexism anti colonialism and anti apartheid Steve Biko s notion of a joint culture is the scaffold on which this vision rests it recognises that a race transcendent society can only be built by acknowledging the constituent elements of South Africa s EuroAfricanAsian heritage The distinguished authors in this volume have over the past two decades used the democratic space to insert into the public domain new conversations around the intersections of race and the economy race and the state race and the environment race and ethnic difference and race and higher education Presented here is some of their most trenchant and yet still evolving thinking Mintirho ya Vulavula Jabulisile Mhlambi, Sandile Ngidi, 2021-04-19 Mintirho ya Vulavula Arts National Identities and Democracy examines the role of arts and culture in development and specifically its value in consolidating our nascent democracy and in facilitating the transformation of South African society Contributors to this edited volume interrogate the role of arts culture and heritage from a transdisciplinary perspective enriched by the cross generational perspectives offered by young and older artists cultural practitioners activists and scholars Authors also offer some policy recommendations on how the contribution of arts and culture to social cohesion and nation building can be enhanced Systemic Racism in South Africa Rupert Taylor, 2024-12-06 This book takes a critical macro level political sociological perspective to understanding South African politics and society Applying systemic racism theory to South Africa the author argues that South African society through its exclusionary social mechanisms has assumed a systemically racist form that deeply compromises questions of truth and justice Constitutive of and embedded in the structure of South African society racism has a reach and a durability that runs deep through the successive stages of segregationism apartheid and liberal democracy Showing the limits of the rule of law in a racist society the author offers a theoretically informed interpretation as to why the national liberation struggle has fallen short of its promise to deliver a better life for all and as to why truth and justice remain so deeply compromised in South Africa today The arguments advanced are supported by over thirty semi structured interviews conducted by the author with high profile South African politicians jurists and intellectuals as well as by using Truth and Reconciliation Commission hearing transcripts both public and top secret This thought provoking book is driven by the imperative to offer a compelling and sustained argument for taking a systemic racism approach to interpreting South Africa for scholars and students of sociology political science race and ethnic studies law and South African history Censorship Derek Jones, 2001-12-01 Censorship A World Encyclopedia presents a comprehensive view of censorship from Ancient Egypt to those modern societies that claim to have abolished the practice For each country in the world the history of censorship is described and placed in context and the media censored are examined art cyberspace literature music the press popular culture radio television and the theatre not to mention the censorship of language the most fundamental censorship of all Also included are surveys of major controversies and chronicles of resistance Censorship will be an essential reference work for students of the many subjects touched by censorship and for all those who are interested in the history of and contemporary fate of freedom of expression Fanon, Psychoanalysis, and Critical Decolonial Psychology Derek Hook, 2025-04-08 This groundbreaking book examines the psychological dimension of decolonial thought in reference to foundational texts Previously published as A Critical Psychology of the Postcolonial this new edition foregrounds the central role of Fanon's psychology Highlighting the contributions of anti colonial authors to the theorization of racism and oppression the book demonstrates the pertinence of postcolonial and decolonial thought for critical social psychology and psychoanalysis via an investigation of a series of key topics It explores the psychology of embodiment and racialization resistance strategies to oppression extra discursive facets of racism the phobogenic and sexual dimensions of anti Blackness and the roles of desire fantasy and unconscious in ideologies of racism The book makes a distinctive contribution through discussing the work of authors drawn from anti apartheid psychoanalytic and critical social theory traditions including Steve Biko J M Coetzee Frantz Fanon Julia Kristeva Chabani Manganyi and Slavoj Žižek This second edition continues to showcase a crucial set of critical resources for an anti racist decolonial agenda and is fully updated with new discussion references and images with a new chapter on desire fantasy and apartheid ideology to strengthen the book's engagement with apartheid racism This is an invaluable text not only for students of critical social psychology psychoanalysis and sociology but for students enrolled in courses on race racism or decolonial studies It will also appeal to postgraduates academics and anyone interested in psychoanalysis in relation to societal and political issues Unsw Press Charlotte Jarabak,2002 A complete listing of all 721 titles published since the inception of UNSW Press in 1962

State Terrorism and Political Identity in Indonesia Ariel Heryanto,2006-04-07 Approximately one million innocent Indonesians were killed by their fellow nationals neighbours and kin at the height of an anti communist campaign in the mid 1960s This book investigates the profound political consequences of these mass killings in Indonesia upon public life highlighting the historical specificities of the violence and comparable incidents of identity politics in more recent times Mixing theory with empirically based analysis the book examines how the spectre of communism and the trauma experienced in the latter half of the 1960s remain critical in understanding the dynamics of terror coercion and consent today Heryanto challenges the general belief that the periodic anti communist witch hunts of recent Indonesian history are largely a political tool used by a powerful military elite and authoritarian government Despite the profound importance of the 1965-6 events it remains one of most difficult and sensitive topics for public discussion in Indonesia today State Terrorism and Political Identity in Indonesia is one of the first books to fully discuss the mass killings shedding new light on a largely unspoken and unknown part of Indonesia's history

The Oxford Encyclopedia of African Thought Abiola Irele,2010 From St Augustine and early Ethiopian philosophers to the anti colonialist movements of Pan Africanism and Negritude this encyclopedia offers a comprehensive view of African thought covering the intellectual tradition both on the continent in its entirety and throughout the African Diaspora in the Americas and in Europe The term African thought has been interpreted in the broadest sense to embrace all those forms of discourse philosophy political thought religion literature important social movements that contribute to the formulation of a distinctive vision of the world determined by or derived from the African experience The Encyclopedia is a large scale work of 350 entries covering major topics involved in the development of African Thought including historical figures and important social movements producing a collection that is an essential resource for teaching an invaluable companion to independent research and a solid guide for further study
