Big Little White Lies Our Attempt To Whiteout America:

Big Little White Lies Carol Chehade, 2001 Depravity Harvey Rosenfeld, 2009 Their crimes span the globe but one thing unites them they are sixteen of the twentieth century's most notorious serial killers In this well researched volume find out their motives and what made them tick Walk the path of investigators who broke cases and listen to the words spoken from the killers' mouth All of them made their communities tremble in fear They include Johann Otto Hoch who moved to America from Germany in the 1890s and married a string of women Instead of being the man of their dreams he became their worst nightmare Fritz Haarmann The Vampire of Hanover killed dozens of young male vagrants and prostitutes from 1919 to 1924 in Germany Bela Kiss a Hungarian serial killer killed young women and tried pickling them in giant metal drums Robert Hansen who began killing prostitutes in Alaska around 1980 He'd let them flee in the wilderness before hunting them down with a knife and rifle Learn about these and other serial killers Find out what motivated them to lead such horrible lives and how they were finally brought to justice in Depravity A Narrative of 16 Serial Killers AUTHOR BIO Dr Harvey Rosenfeld is an English professor at City University of New York and Pace University He has written several books and is the founding editor of Martyrdom and Resistance a bimonthly that focuses on the Holocaust which he served as editor for more than three decades

Speaking of Monsters Caroline Joan S. Picart, John Edgar Browning, 2012-07-16 Employing a range of approaches to examine how monster talk pervades not only popular culture but also public policy through film and other media this book is a one stop shop of sorts for students and instructors employing various approaches and media in the study of teratologies or discourses of the monstrous

Rebirthing a Nation Wendy K. Z. Anderson, 2021-04-22 Although US history is marred by institutionalized racism and sexism post-racial and postfeminist attitudes drive our polarized politics Violence against people of color transgender and gay people and women soar upon the backdrop of Donald Trump Tea Party affiliates alt right members like Richard Spencer and right wing political commentators like Milo Yiannopoulos who defend their racist and sexist commentary through legalistic claims of freedom of speech While more institutions recognize the volatility of these white men's speech few notice or have thoughtfully considered the role of white nationalist alt right and conservative white women's messages that organizationally preserve white supremacy In Rebirthing a Nation White Women Identity Politics and the Internet author Wendy K Z Anderson details how white nationalist and alt right women refine racist rhetoric and web design as a means of protection and simultaneous instantiation of white supremacy which conservative political actors including Sarah Palin Donald Trump Kellyanne Conway Sarah Huckabee Sanders and Ivanka Trump have amplified through transnational politics By validating racial fears and political divisiveness through coded white identity politics postfeminist and motherhood discourse functions as a colorblind gilded cage Rebirthing a Nation reveals how white nationalist women utilize colorblind racism within digital space exposing how a postfeminist framework becomes fodder for conservative white women's political speech to preserve institutional white supremacy

Framing Law and Crime

Caroline Joan "Kay" S. Picart, Michael Hviid Jacobsen, Cecil Greek, 2016-04-01 This cutting edge edited collection brings together 17 scholarly essays on two of cinema and television's most enduring and powerful themes law and crime With contributions by many of the most prominent scholars in law sociology criminology and film Framing Law and Crime offers a critical survey of a variety of genres and media integrating descriptions of technique with critical analysis and incorporating historical and socio political critique The first set of essays brings together accounts of the history of the Law and Cinema Movement the groundbreaking genre of post apocalyptic fiction and the policy setting genesis of a Canadian documentary The second section of the book turns to the examination of a range of international or global films with an eye to assessing the strengths frailties and possible functions of law as depicted in fictional cinema After an international focus in the second section the third section focuses on law and crime in American film and television inclusive of both fictional and documentary modes of narration This section's expansion beyond film narratives to include television series attempts to broaden the scope of the edited collection in terms of media discussed it is also a nod to how the big screen although still a dominant force in American popular culture now has to compete to some extent with the small screen for influence over the collective American popular cultural imaginary The fourth section titled brings together various chapters that attempt to instantiate how a Gothic Criminology could be useful as an interpretative framework in analyzing depictions of law and crime in film and television The fifth and final section covers issues of pedagogy epistemology and ethics in relation to moving images of law and crime Merging wide ranging analyses with nuanced scholarly interpretations Framing Law and Crime examines key concepts and showcases original research reflecting the latest interdisciplinary trends in the scholarship of the moving image It addresses not only scholars but also fans and will heighten the appreciation of connoisseurs and newcomers to these topics alike
