Binding Cultures Black Women Writers In Africa And The Diaspora:

Binding Cultures Gay Wilentz, 1992-05-22 Wilentz makes convincing arguments for the connections between African and Afro American women's culture. Nellie McKay Wilentz's jargon-free intelligent discussion will appeal to students in African American and women's literature courses as well as general readers interested in the emerging field. Choice Through these works Wilentz demonstrates the powerful transformation possible through understanding and embracing the past even if that past includes oppression and brutalization. Belles Lettres Binding Cultures investigates the cultural bonds between African and African American women writers such as Nigerian Flora Nwapa and Ghanaians Efua Sutherland and Ama Ata Aidoo writers who focus on the role of women in passing on cultural values to future generations and African American writers Alice Walker Toni Morrison and Paule Marshall who self-consciously evoke African culture to help create a more integrated African American community. Gender in African Women's Writing Juliana Makuchi Nfah-Abbenyi, 1997-12-22 This is a cogent analysis of the complexities of gender in the work of nine contemporary Anglophone and Francophone novelists offers illuminating interpretations of worthy writers. Multicultural Review This book reaffirms Bessie Head's remark that books are a tool in this case a tool that allows readers to understand better the rich lives and the condition of African women. Excellent notes and a rich bibliography. Choice a college level analysis which will appeal to any interested in African studies and literature. The Bookwatch This book applies gender as a category of analysis to the works of nine sub-Saharan women writers Aidoo B. Beyala Dangarembga Emecheta Head Liking Tlali and Zanga Tsogo. The author appropriates western feminist theories of gender in an African literary context and in the process she finds and names critical theory that is African indigenous self-determining which she then melds with western feminist theory and comes out with an overarching theory that enriches western postcolonial and African critical perspectives. Postcolonial African Writers Siga Fatima Jagne, Pushpa Naidu Parekh, 2012-11-12 This reference book surveys the richness of postcolonial African literature. The volume begins with an introductory essay on postcolonial criticism and African writing then presents alphabetically arranged profiles of some 60 writers including Chinua Achebe Nadine Gordimer Bessie Head Doris Lessing Tsitsi Dangarembga Tahar Ben Jelloun among others. Each entry includes a brief biography a discussion of major works and themes that appear in the author's writings an overview of the critical response to the author's work and a bibliography of primary and secondary sources. These profiles are written by expert contributors and reflect many different perspectives. The volume concludes with a selected general bibliography of the most important critical works on postcolonial African literature.

The Companion to African Literatures G. D. Killam, Ruth Rowe, 2000 Refreshing African Studies Review The entries are knowledgeable thorough and clearly written. Highly recommended. Choice an ambitious reference guide to works on African literature. African Studies Review This comprehensive compendium will be a handy companion for anyone working on African literatures. The entries are authoritative and up-to-date providing reliable information on the hundreds of authors and texts that have contributed to a whole continent's literary flowering Bernth Lindfors A comprehensive introduction and guide to African authored works with over 1 000 cross referenced entries covering classics in African writing literary genres and movements biographical details of authors and wider themes linking African Afro Caribbean and Afro American literatures

Black Women Film and Video Artists Jacqueline Bobo, 2013-09-13 Black women film and video makers have been producing shorts documentaries and films since the early part of this century Unfortunately not only has their work been overlooked by distributors but critical reviews have been few and far between Conceived to redress that omission Black Women Film and Video Artists is the first comprehensive history and analysis of this genre Gathered here are noted scholars and critics as well as the film video makers themselves who offer insight into the work of underexplored artists The discussions range from pioneering to contemporary film makers and include artists such as Madeline Anderson Monica Freeman Jacqueline Shearer Kathleen Collins Julie Dash Camille Billops Zeinabu irene Davis and Michelle Parkerson among others Contributors include Jacqueline Bobo Carmen Coustaut Gloria J Gibson C A Griffith Monique Guillory Carol Munday Lawrence O Funmilayo Makarah Ntongela Maselila Jacqueline Shearer P Jane Splawn Diasporic Women's Writing of the Black Atlantic Emilia María Durán-Almarza, Esther Álvarez López, 2013-10-30 This book brings together a complete set of approaches to works by female authors that articulate the black Atlantic in relation to the interplay of race class and gender The chapters provide the grounds to engender a more complex understanding of the scattered geographies of the African diaspora in the Atlantic basin The variety of approaches displayed bears witness to the vitality of a field that over the years has become a diasporic formation itself as it incorporates critical insights and theoretical frameworks from multiple disciplines in the social sciences and the humanities thus exposing the manifold character of black diasporic interconnections within and beyond the Atlantic Focusing on a wide array of contemporary literary and performance texts by women writers and performers from diverse locations including the Caribbean Canada Africa the US and the UK chapters visit genres such as performance art the novel science fiction short stories and music For these purposes the volume is organized around two significant dimensions of diasporas on the one hand the material corporeal and spatial locations where those displacements associated with travel and exile occur and on the other the fluid environments and networks that connect distant places cultures and times This collection explores the ways in which women of African descent shape the cultures and histories in the modern colonial and postcolonial Atlantic worlds Black Women in America Kim Marie Vaz, 1994-11-02 This stimulating volume challenges the tendency to represent African American women's experiences as a monolithic whole The interdisciplinary approach organized around the theme of activism enables an unusual and inventive selection of topics to be presented The history culture sociology and psychology of black women are richly represented Diasporic Africa Michael A. Gomez, 2006 Diasporic Africa presents the most recent research on the history and experiences of people of African descent outside of the African continent By incorporating Europe and North Africa as well as North America Latin America and the Caribbean this reader shifts the discourse on the African diaspora away from its focus solely on the Americas underscoring the fact that much of the movement of people of African descent took place in Old World contexts This broader view allows for a more comprehensive approach to the study of the African diaspora The volume provides an overview of African diaspora studies and features as a major concern a rigorous interrogation of identity Other primary themes include contributions to western civilization from religion music and sports to agricultural production and medicine as well as the way in which our understanding of the African diaspora fits into larger studies of transnational phenomena An
