An Armenian Family Keith Elliot Greenberg, 1997 Chronicles the history of the Armenian people and describes the experiences of one Armenian family who left Russia to rebuild their lives in America The Armenian Family Harold Nelson, 1953 The Righteous of the Armenian Genocide GRARD. DDYAN, Ago Demirdjian, Nabil Saleh, 2023 Shines long overdue light on the heroic individuals who took action in the face of the Armenian genocide This book tells the stories of the Muslims Christians Jews and others who made a courageous stand against the mass slaughter of Ottoman Armenians in 1915 the first modern genocide Foreigners and Ottomans alike ran considerable risks to bear witness and rescue victims sometimes sacrificing their lives Diplomats humanitarians missionaries lawyers and other visitors to the Empire stood up including Tolstoy's daughter Alexandra Raphael Lemkin the jurist who first established genocide as an international crime and the polar explorer Fridtjof Nansen who recognised and relieved the plight of stateless Armenian refugees Ottoman subjects from officials and officers to ordinary townspeople and villagers faced near certain death for their entire family by resisting orders and helping Armenians Unlike the Righteous of the Holocaust these heroes have been systematically ignored and erased a major injustice Based on fresh research and hoping to repay a moral debt to Ottoman Muslims who braved everything to rescue the authors forebears this book is an important moving testament to a grievously overlooked aspect of the Armenian tragedy The Armenians of Aintab Ümit Kurt, 2021-04-13 mit Kurt explores causes and effects of the Armenian genocide in his hometown of Gaziantep Turkey He finds that local gentry and ordinary Turks were heavily motivated by the prospect of financial gain as Armenians were dispossessed Newly enriched Turks then financed the young republic elevating themselves to the status of a political elite Like One Family Arpena Sachaklian Mesrobian, 2000

The Armenians Edmund Herzig, Marina Kurkchian, 2004-11-10 A comprehensive introduction to the historical forces and recent social and political developments that have shaped today's Armenian people With contributions from leading Armenian American and European specialists the book focuses on identity formation exploring how the Armenians' perceptions of themselves and their place in the world are informed by their history culture and present day situation The book also covers contemporary politics economy and society and relates these to ongoing debates over future directions for the Armenian people both in the homeland and in the diaspora communities An Armenian Family Reunion Mitchell Kalpakgian, 2004 Shooting the Family Patricia Pisters, Wim Staat, 2005 Shooting the Family a collection of essays on the contemporary media landscape explores ever changing representations of family life on a global scale The contributors argue that new recording technologies allows families an unusual kind of freedom until now unknown to define and respond to their own lives and memories Recently released videos made by young migrants as they discover new homelands and resolve conflicts with their parents for example reverberate alongside the dark portrayals of family life in the formal filmmaking of Ang Lee This book will be a boon to scholars of film theory and media studies as well as to anyone interested in the
