Arrival And Settlement In A New Place:

Handbook on Home and Migration Paolo Boccagni, 2023-06-01 This dynamic Handbook unpacks the entanglements between the two notions of home and migration which illuminate the lived experiences of in voluntary mobilities and the contested terrain of inclusion and belonging Drawing on cross disciplinary contributions from leading international scholars it advances research on the social study of home in relation to migration refugee displacement and diaspora studies This title contains one or more Open Access chapters

Home Across Borders Jagath Bandara Pathirage, 2024-10-08 This book studies how transnational migrants create a sense of home in their host countries It draws on case studies of Sri Lankan migrants living in Australia to argue that home is an existential experience rather than a fixed entity The author looks at how the sense of home arises as a fresh category which is critical in defining one's existentiality in the host society Going beyond the conventional methodological approach of an ethnographer objectivizing other's sense of home into fixed categories the book attempts to foreground the immigrant's articulation of home which evolves parallel to their being It reveals how three important aspects of our lives time space and memory intersect with the trajectories of migration The author also delves into the ways in which migrants engage in building a home as a way of creating materiality in their dwelling practice Unique and compelling the book will be highly useful in studies of diaspora globalisation and transnational migration It will be of interest to students researchers and scholars of anthropology migration and transnational studies as well as sociology and other related disciplines

Migration and Identity in Central Asia Rano Turaeva, 2015-11-19 This book is an ethnographic and sociolinguistic study of Uzbek migrants in the capital city of Uzbekistan The ethnographic details of the book represent post Soviet urban realities on the ground where various forms of belonging clash and kinship ties are reinforced within social safety networks Theoretically it challenges the existing theories of identity and identification which often considered the relations between We and Them taking the We for granted The book offers in depth insights into the communication strategies of migrants the formation of collective consciousness and the relations within the We domain Constructed around contradictions regarding Uzbek identity and how various groups relate to one another as different ethnic groups the theoretical argument of the book is built through such methods and analytical tools as strategic rhetoric and discourse analysis communication and identity theories and the analysis of power and dependence The book will be of interest to students and scholars of Central Asian Studies Migration Studies and Central Asian Culture and Society

Migration Landing Spaces Martina Bovo, 2024-05-17 This book looks at migrant landing spaces exploring the processes and infrastructures which people encounter as they navigate urban spaces along the central Mediterranean route The book argues that there remains a theoretical and practical difficulty in grasping the complexity of migrant arrivals Migrants are often unsure whether they will stay or leave their mobility is uncertain Despite this they face rigid binaries and categories within administrative policy and planning which tries to pin them down as either permanent or temporary Drawing on extensive original research in southern Italy this book suggests that we should instead think of landing spaces parts of the city that work as infrastructures for landing that allow for an open and dynamic use of the urban space and provide opportunities for encounter and information exchange as migrants consider their next steps Combining an ethnographic gaze with insights from urban planning architecture geography social sciences and migration studies this book invites us to look closer at the interactions between people practices and places as migrants land in Europe Empire Settlement Sir John Arthur Ransome Marriott,1927 Bollywood Travels Rajinder Kumar Dudrah,2012 This title offers a cultural and social analysis of contemporary Bollywood films over the past decade exploring the ideas of nation race religion gender and sexuality cinema and public spaces diaspora and globalization Sixth Annual Report of the Colonization Society of the City of New-York, &c New York State Colonization Society,1838 Appendix to the Journals of the House of Representatives of New Zealand New Zealand.
