Art And History Of Tel Aviv:

Art and History of Tel Aviv, Yaffo Giuliano Valdes, 1994 The Art and Artists of the Fifth Zionist Congress, 1901 Gilya Gerda Schmidt, 2003-10-01 Martin Buber and friends successfully lobbied the congress for inclusion of cultural Zionism into the official agenda of the Zionist organization resulting in the establishment of the Bezalel Art Institute in Jerusalem in 1905 In the first book of its kind Gilya Gerda Schmidt places this art exhibition in the context of political Zionism as well as anti-Semitism Jews had been denied the opportunity to be creative and religious Zionists feared that Jewish culture would usurp religion within the Zionist movement Hermann Struck an artist and Orthodox Jew became a founding member of the religious Zionist Party further supporting Buber's assertion that culture and religion were not at odds The forty eight works of art in the exhibition were created by eleven artists all but two of whom were famous in their lifetime Until now their works had been largely forgotten In the last decade contributing artists Ephraim Lilien Lesser Ury Jozef Israels Struck and Maurycy Gottlieb have enjoyed a revival of their work Activestills Vered Maimon, Shiraz Grinbaum, 2016-10-20 In 2005 a group of photographers took a stand alongside the people of the small town of Bil'in and documented their fight to stop the Israeli government building the infamous West Bank Barrier Inspired by what they had seen in Bil'in the group went on to form Activestills a collective whose work has become vital in documenting the struggle against Israeli occupation and everyday life in extraordinary situations Activestills Photography as Protest in Palestine Israel examines the collective's archive and activity from historical theoretical critical and personal perspectives It is the result of an in depth dialogue among members of the collective and activists journalists intellectuals and academics and stands as the definitive study of the collective's work Combining striking full colour photographs with essays and commentary Activestills stands as both a major contribution to reportage on Israel Palestine and a unique collection of visual art Art, History and the Historiography of Judaism in Roman Antiquity Steven Fine, 2013-10-10 Art History and the Historiography of Judaism in Roman Antiquity explores the complex interplay between visual culture texts and their interpretations arguing for an open ended and self aware approach to understanding Jewish culture from the first century CE through the rise of Islam The essays assembled here range from the thick description of Josephus's portrayal of Bezalel son of Uri as a Roman architect through the inscriptions of the Dura Europos synagogue Jewish reflections on Caligula in color the polychromy of the Jerusalem temple new old approaches to the zodiac and to the Christian destruction of ancient synagogues Taken together these essays suggest a humane approach to the history of the Jews in an age of deep and long lasting transitions both in antiquity and in our own time Taken as a whole Fine's book exhibits the value of bridging disciplines The historiographical segments integrated throughout this volume offer essential insights that will inform any student of Roman and late antiquity Yael Wilfand Hebrew University Review of Biblical Literature 2014 Visualizing and Exhibiting Jewish Space and History Richard I. Cohen, 2012-10-30 Continuing its distinguished tradition of focusing on central political sociological and cultural issues of Jewish life in the last century Volume

XXVI of the annual Studies in Contemporary Jewry examines the visual revolution that has overtaken Jewish cultural life in the twentieth century onwards with special attention given to the evolution of Jewish museums Bringing together leading curators and scholars Visualizing and Exhibiting Jewish Space and History treats various forms of Jewish representation in museums in Europe and the United States before the Second World War and inquires into the nature and proliferation of Jewish museums following the Holocaust and the fall of Communism in Western and Eastern Europe In addition a pair of essays dedicated to six exhibitions that took place in Israel in 2008 to mark six decades of Israeli art raises significant issues on the relationship between art and gender and art and politics An introductory essay highlights the dramatic transformation in the appreciation of the visual in Jewish culture The scope of the symposium offers one of the first scholarly attempts to treat this theme in several countries Also featured in this volume are a provocative essay on the nature of antisemitism in twentieth century English society review essays on Jewish fundamentalism and recent works on the subject of the Holocaust in occupied Soviet territories and reviews of new titles in Jewish Studies

Collecting and Provenance Andrea M. Gáldy, Ronit Sorek, Netta Assaf, Gal Ventura, 2021-06-21 This collection of essays highlights the enduring significance of provenance and its implications for historians and art historians as well as students and researchers engaged in museum studies It also offers an opportunity to demonstrate its relevance to other fields of expertise such as conservation visual culture studies aesthetics authentication and connoisseurship versus technology as a means of establishing attributions and detecting forgeries Provenance is still of vital importance to jurisdiction whether it concerns property law or ownership It also remains topical because of the ongoing debates over looted art in the 1930s and 1940s and the illicit trade in antiquities conducted from Iraq and Syria by terrorist groups
