Grimes, B. Lynne Milgram, 2022-07-12 With new markets opening up for goods produced by artisans from all parts of the world craft commercialization and craft industries have become key components of local economies Now with the emergence of the Fair Trade movement and public opposition to sweatshop labor many people are demanding that artisans in third world countries not be exploited for their labor Bringing together case studies from the Americas and Asia this timely collection of articles addresses the interplay among subsistence activities craft production and the global market It contributes to current debates on economic inequality by offering practical examples of the political economic and cultural issues surrounding artisan production as an expressive vehicle of ethnic and gender identity Striking a balance between economic and ethnographic analyses the contributors observe what has worked and what hasn't in a range of craft cooperatives and show how some artisans have expanded their entrepreneurial role by marketing crafts in addition to producing them. Among the topics discussed are the accommodation of craft traditions in the global market, fair trade issues and the emerging role of the anthropologist as a proactive agent for artisan groups. As the gap between rich and poor widens, the fate of subsistence economies seems more and more uncertain. The artisans in this book show that people can and do employ innovative opportunities to develop their talents and in the process strengthen their ethnic identities.

The Wiley

Blackwell Companion to Religion and Materiality Vasudha Narayanan, 2020-04-16

The Wiley Blackwell Companion to Religion and Materiality provides a thoughtfully organized, inclusive and vibrant project of the multiple ways in which religion and materiality intersect. The contributions explore the way that religion is shaped by and has shaped the material world, embedding beliefs, doctrines and texts into social and cultural contexts of production, circulation and consumption. The Companion not only contains scholarly essays but has an accompanying website to demonstrate the work of performers, architects and expressive artists ranging from musicians and dancers to religious practitioners. These examples offer specific illustrations of the interplay of religion and materiality in everyday life. The project is organized from a comparative perspective, highlighting examples and case studies from traditions originating in both East and West. To summarize the volume brings together the leading figures, theories and ideas in the field in a systematic and comprehensive way. Offers an interdisciplinary approach drawing together religious studies, anthropology, archaeology, history, sociology, geography, the cognitive sciences, ecology and media studies. Takes a comparative perspective covering all the major faith traditions.
