Art Of Our Time The Saatchi Collection 4:

ART OF OUR TIME Saatchi Collection, 1984 The Hydrogen Jukebox Peter Schjeldahl, 2023-09-01 Baudelaire's famous description of the best criticism as entertaining and poetic not coldly analytic lives in the essays of Peter Schjeldahl. Schjeldahl self-consciously continues the modern tradition of art criticism crafted by poet-critics providing a sharp perspective on individual artists, their work, art world events and new creative directions. He challenges established views and his infectious passion for art continually engages the reader. In essays on Rothko, Munch, Warhol, Dubuffet, Nauman, Sherman, Salle, de Kooning, Guston, Ruscha and Koons, Schjeldahl skillfully juggles theory and analysis in exploring cultural context and technique. His writings free of the contortions of some critical prose and characterized by a sustained focus on works of art map the contemporary art scene in New York with occasional forays to Los Angeles and elsewhere, cataloguing the colorful personalities, cultural attractions and ethical hazards of the art world. It's a fast fun trip with arguments that fold back upon themselves in surprising revelations and reversals of the author's opinion. There is never a dull moment for those with an eye on contemporary art. Baudelaire's famous description of the best criticism as entertaining and poetic not coldly analytic lives in the essays of Peter Schjeldahl. Schjeldahl self-consciously continues the modern tradition of art criticism crafted by poet-critics provide.

Movements in Art Since 1945: Second Edition (World of Art) Edward Lucie-Smith, 2020-04-14 A classic introduction to art since the end of the Second World War. Movements in Art Since 1945 tells the story of art across all forms of media over the past seventy-five years. Revised and redesigned for the first time since 2001, this standard introduction to visual art in the postwar era examines the movements, trends and artists from abstract expressionism to the present day. Writing with exceptional clarity and a strong sense of narrative, Edward Lucie-Smith demystifies the work of dozens of artists and reveals how the art world has interacted with social, political and environmental concerns. This book includes detailed coverage of major developments within the artistic community such as pop art, conceptual and performance work, neo-expressionism and minimalist art across the globe including Asia, Africa and Latin America. A new chapter on art since 2000 includes discussions of work by Banksy and Ai Weiwei as well as recent trends in art from Russia and Eastern Europe. Featuring nearly 300 images of key artworks that range from graffiti from 1980s New York to contemporary painting from China, this updated edition of Movements in Art Since 1945 is as global in its reach as art has become in the twenty-first century.

Our Times A. N. Wilson, 2024-08-06 When Queen Elizabeth II was crowned in 1953, many proclaimed the start of a new Elizabethan Age. Few had any inkling, however, of the stupendous changes that would occur over the next fifty years, both in Britain and around the world. In Our Times, A. N. Wilson takes the reader on an exhilarating journey through postwar Britain. With his acute eye not just for the broad social and cultural sweep but also for the telling detail, he brilliantly distills half a century of unprecedented social and political change. Here are the defining events and characters of the modern age, from the Suez crisis to Vietnam, from the Beatles to Princess Diana. Here are the Angry Young Men, the rise of pop culture and celebrity industrial unrest and the Winter of Discontent the Thatcher era and the eventual collapse of the Soviet Union This book propels the reader from postwar austerity to the end of the British Empire and the emergence of America as a superpower to the multicultural Britain of today With Our Times Wilson triumphantly concludes the acclaimed trilogy that opened with The Victorians and was followed by After the Victorians Our Times makes compelling reading for anyone interested in the forces that have shaped our world

High Art Lite Julian Stallabrass,1999 High Art Lite takes a critical look at British art of the 1990s It provides an analysis of the British art scene exploring the reasons for its popularity and examines in detail the work of the leading figures

Seeing and Consciousness Gen Doy,2020-08-20 Through its provocative examination of feminist and Marxist approaches to women s art and female representations this book challenges the widespread belief that Marxism has nothing valuable to contribute to women s studies The author argues that from the French Revolution through to the present gender and class have shaped visual imagery She shows how Marxist theory can function to question some of the premises of feminist art histories and to provide a more accurate understanding of the meanings of visual imagery

Leon Golub Jon Bird,2000 Now in his late 70s Leon Golub is a leading exponent of history painting painting as a narrative symbolic expression of global social and political relations and of the realities of power In this book published to accompany a major retrospective exhibition traveling to Ireland England and the United States Jon Bird examines the artist s work from the classically influenced early paintings through depictions of conflict and masculine aggression to compelling images of the last two decades Despite the widespread critical attention his work has received the range and extent of his practice and its complex interweaving of the iconographic traditions of both high and popular art have not been properly examined As a history painter Golub is acutely aware of the antecedents to his own imagery and symbolism part of Jon Bird s critical project is to track and define the artist s relationship to modernism Making a case for Golub s practice of critical realism that also takes account of the unconscious Bird focuses on two themes that dominate Golub s work how his art figures the body as a sign for social and psychic identity and what might be termed the symbolic expression of social space

Flash Art ,1997

Dan Flavin Tiffany Bell,Michael Govan,2004-01-01 New scholarship and interpretation of Flavin s work also appears in the form of three critical essays by experts and an extensive chronology comprehensive bibliography and exhibition history In addition this book includes Flavin s text in daylight or cool white an autobiographical sketch originally published in Artforum in 1965 and two interviews with the artist one from 1972 and the other from 1982
