Students will make progress by:	Teaching and Learning Principles	Teachers will ensure that students make progress by:
Knowing the purpose of their learning through understanding their personal starting point, end targets and how to achieve them.	Lesson Objectives and Planning	Setting personalised targets for each lesson and planning the steps to enable them to achieve them.
Providing feedback that is reflective of their current ability, ensuring that strengths and areas for development are accurately identified and can support purposeful action	Assessment for Learning	Building in checks which identify where progress has been made, areas for development and act on the feedback gathered.
Taking pride and responsibility for their learning, having the confidence to take risks and supporting their peers in their journey to achievement.	Culture for Learning	Nurturing an environment that establishes high expectations, independence and commitment to aspirational achievement.
Knowing what their personalised learning routes are, their abilities and how they are being challenged.	Differentiation	Knowing the needs of each student, planning for and ensuring all are enabled to achieve to the best of their ability.
Taking opportunities to develop their independence, engaging with problem solving and being willing to experiment.	Creativity	Utilising different learning styles, encouraging independent thought and providing discovery-based learning.
Engaging with all learning steps with focussed action and being passionate about their learning journey.	Chunking and Pace	Breaking learning down into clear steps that build towards the final goal and effectively using time to drive the journey to achievement.
Knowing where they are currently working at, what their targets are and how to achieve them.	Progress and Data	Having a clear knowledge of the students and how to plan, measure and secure their best achievement.
Being inspired to explore and find answers to questions beyond their current understanding.	Questioning	Providing and developing a platform for deeper reflection, exploration and understanding.
Knowing their personal development areas and how to take steps to achieve them across the academy.	Literacy	Identifying, addressing and developing personal development areas in literacy and modelling high expectations.
Responding and acting on feedback, and engaging in on-going dialogue with staff about how they can make progress towards their aspirations.	Marking and Dialogue	Securing an on-going dialogue with students about their learning, making the steps to progress explicit and ensuring they are secured.
