Basil Bunting Man And Poet:

Basil Bunting Carroll F. Terrell, 1980-12-01 Basil Bunting Basil Bunting, 1981 Under Briggflatts Donald Davie, 1989-10-12 Under Briggflatts is a history of the last thirty years of British poetry with necessary excursions into other areas criticism philosophy translation and non British English poetries It has grown naturally out of Donald Davie's immediate involvement with new writing as a poet reviewer teacher and reader He has reassessed the writers who have most engaged his attention revised his reviews and supplemented earlier material with much that is new Under Briggflatts provides a narrative that is remarkable in scope and generous in tone By combining close readings of specific poems and more general considerations of style form and context Davie's account is characteristically elegant precise and uncompromising Under Briggflatts is organized in three large chapters one devoted to each decade In the 1960s Davie pays particular attention to the work of Austin Clarke Hugh MacDiarmid Norman McCaig Keith Douglas Edwin Muir Basil Bunting the gurus whose prose writings helped catalyze the traumatic events of 1968 Elaine Feinstein Sylvia Townsend Warner Philip Larkin Charles Tomlinson Thomas Kinsella and Ted Hughes The second chapter follows these figures into the new decade and explores the work of among others Thom Gunn C H Sisson R S Thomas John Betjeman and such themes as women's poetry translation poetic theory and the later impact of T S Eliot and of Edward Thomas Perhaps the most controversial chapter is the third in which David without abandoning the poets already introduced assesses Geoffrey Hill Tony Harrison and Seamus Heaney and looks too at the recovery of Ivor Gurney's poems at Ted Hughes as Laureate the posthumous work of Sylvia Townsend Warner the burgeoning Hardy industry and the critical writings of Kenneth Cox The Poems of Basil Bunting Basil Bunting, 2016-06-14 Basil Bunting's work was published haphazardly throughout most of his life and in many cases he did not oversee publication This is the first critical edition of the complete poems and offers an accurate text with variants from all printed sources Don Share annotates Bunting's often complex and allusive verse with much illuminating quotation from his prose writings interviews and correspondence He also examines Bunting's use of sources including Persian literature and classical mythology and explores the Northumbrian roots of Bunting's poetic vocabulary and use of dialect Modernism, the Market and the Institution of the New Rod Rosenquist, 2009-01-08 This book examines the problems faced by innovative writers working in a late modernist era dominated by Joyce Eliot and Pound The Cambridge Introduction to British Poetry, 1945-2010 Eric Falci, 2015-11-12 This book provides an overview of poetry from England Scotland Wales and Northern Ireland from the postwar period through to the twenty first century The Poets of Rapallo Lauren Arrington, 2021-07-08 A new story about the relationships between major twentieth century English language poets Why did poets from the United States Britain and Ireland gather in a small town in Italy during the early years of Mussolini's regime These writers were or became some of the most famous poets of the twentieth century What brought them together and what did they hope to achieve The Poets of Rapallo is about the conversations collaborations and disagreements among Ezra and Dorothy Pound W B and George Yeats Richard Aldington and Brigit Patmore Thomas MacGreevy Louis Zukofsky and Basil Bunting Drawing on their correspondence diaries drafts of poems sketches and photographs this book shows how the backdrop of the Italian fascist regime is essential to their writing about their home countries and their ideas about modern art and poetry It also explores their interconnectedness as poets and shows how these connections were erased as their work was polished for publication Focusing on the years between 1928 and 1935 when Pound and Yeats hosted an array of visiting writers this book shows how the literary culture of Rapallo forged the lifelong friendships of Richard Aldington and Thomas MacGreevy both veterans of the First World War and of Louis Zukofsky and Basil Bunting who imagined a new kind of democratic poetry for the twentieth century In the wake of the Second World War these four poets all downplayed their relationship to Ezra Pound and avoided discussing how important Rapallo was to their development as poets But how did these democratic poets respond to the fascist context in which they worked during their time in Rapallo The Poets of Rapallo discusses their collaboration with Pound their awareness of the rising tide of fascism and even in some cases their complicity in the activities of the fascist regime The Poets of Rapallo charts the new direction for modernist writing that these writers imagined and in the process it exposes the dark underbelly of some of the most lauded poetry in the English language

Ezra Pound Among the Poets George Bornstein, 1988-10-03 Be influenced by as many great writers as you can said Ezra Pound Pound was an assimilative poet par excellence as George Bornstein calls him a writer who more often adhered to a classical conception of influence as benign and strengthening than to an anxiety model of influence To study Pound means to study also his precursors Homer Ovid Li Po Dante Whitman Browning as well as his contemporaries Yeats Williams and Eliot These poets discussed here by ten distinguished critics stimulated Pound's most important poetic encounters with the literature of Greece Rome China Tuscany England and the United States Fully half of these essays draw on previously unpublished manuscripts
