|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Stop to visualize (picture) what is happening in the story                                                                | My book doesn't have many pictures and I want to imagine what is happening in my mind.                                                      |
| Write down a few questions before I start reading and then answer my questions at the end of my reading time              | I have a hard time remembering what happens in my story. If I ask questions, it will help me stay focused on finding the answers as I read. |
| Stop at the end of a chapter, or section, in my story to summarize what is going on.                                      | I get to the end of my chapter or section and can't remember the details of the story.                                                      |
| Go back and reread when I don't understand what is going on in the story                                                  | When I get to the end of my reading time, I can't remember what I read.                                                                     |
| Learn new and interesting words from the books I read                                                                     | I keep coming across new and interesting words and I don't know what they mean.                                                             |
| Take a picture walk, or preview the chapter titles before reading                                                         | I want to get my mind thinking and predicting about what I will read.                                                                       |
| Use word-attack strategies like reread, chunking, using meaning clues, reading on, or connecting to words I already know. | My reading pace is slow because I have to stop to figure out a word often. This make my reading choppy.                                     |
