Basic Texts in International Relations Evan Luard, 2016-07-27 This text combines passages from major writers on international relations over the ages together with a brief commentary on each The collection is divided into three main sections the individual the state and the society of states the three main alternative ways of conceiving the subject

Richard Ned Lebow: Essential Texts on Classics, History, Ethics, and International Relations Richard Ned Lebow, 2016-09-19 This last one out of four volumes by Richard Ned Lebow in this book series focuses on various fields of social sciences and their connection to international politics The author writes about topics in psychology tragedy and ethics All of these fields are being put into relation with political aspects especially international relations International Relations from the Global South Arlene B. Tickner, Karen Smith, 2020-05-21 This exciting new textbook challenges the implicit notions inherent in most existing International Relations IR scholarship and instead presents the subject as seen from different vantage points in the global South Divided into four sections 1 the IR discipline 2 key concepts and categories 3 global issues and 4 IR futures it examines the ways in which world politics have been addressed by traditional core approaches and explores the limitations of these treatments for understanding both Southern and Northern experiences of the international The book encourages readers to consider how key ideas have been developed in the discipline and through systematic interventions by contributors from around the globe aims at both transforming and enriching the dominant terms of scholarly debate This empowering critical and reflexive tool for thinking about the diversity of experiences of international relations and for placing them front and center in the classroom will help professors and students in both the global North and the global South envision the world differently In addition to general introductory IR courses at both the undergraduate and graduate levels it will appeal to courses on sociology and historiography of knowledge globalization neoliberalism security the state imperialism and international political economy International Relations in Political Thought Chris

Brown, Terry Nardin, Nicholas Rengger, 2002-04-25 This unique collection presents texts in international relations from Ancient Greece to the First World War Major writers such as Thucydides Augustine Aquinas Machiavelli Grotius Kant and John Stuart Mill are represented by extracts of their key works less well known international theorists including John of Paris Cornelius van Bynkershoek and Friedrich List are also included Fifty writers are anthologised in what is the largest such collection currently available The texts most of which are substantial extracts are organised into broadly chronological sections each of which is headed by an introduction that places the work in its historical and philosophical context Ideal for both students and scholars the volume also includes biographies and guides to further reading International organisation and integration. A collection of the texts of documents relating to the United Nations, its related agencies and regional international organisations Herman Hendrik Maas, Laurens Jan Brinkhorst, H. F. Panhuys Vann, M. van Leeuwen

Boomkamp, M. Leeuwen Boomkamp (van.), Geoffrey M. Wittenberg, Handbook of Research Methods in International Relations Huddleston, R. J., Jamieson, Thomas, James, Patrick, 2022-08-05 Drawing together international experts on research methods in International Relations IR this Handbook answers the complex practical questions for those approaching a new research topic for the first time Innovative in its approach it considers the art of IR research as well as the science offering diverse perspectives on current research methods and emerging developments in the field Classical Theories of International Relations Ian Clark, Iver B. Neumann, 2016-07-27 Drawing on a tripartite taxonomy first suggested by the so called English School of International Relations of a Hobbesian tradition of power politics a Grotian tradition of concern with the rules that govern relations between states and a Kantian tradition of thinking which transcends the existence of the states system this book discusses the thinking of central political theorists about the modern states system Thinkers covered are Hobbes Grotius Kant Vitoria Rousseau Smith Burke Hegel Gentz and Vattel An Introduction to International Relations Theory Jill Steans, Lloyd Pettiford, Thomas Diez, Imad El-Anis, 2013-09-13 This long awaited new edition has been fully updated and revised by the original authors as well as two new members of the author team Based on many years of active research and teaching it takes the discipline's most difficult aspects and makes them accessible and interesting Each chapter builds up an understanding of the different ways of looking at the world The clarity of presentation allows students to rapidly develop a theoretical framework and to apply this knowledge widely as a way of understanding both more advanced theoretical texts and events in world politics Suitable for first and second year undergraduates studying international relations and international relations theory Realism and International Relations Patrick James, 2022-10-28 Translating the vast amount of information in the field of international relations into knowledge requires a greater emphasis on communication beyond the use of text Given the challenges posed by existing and intensifying information overload Patrick James calls for a new vision of progress with a solid foundation in the philosophy of inquiry and through graphic representation of cause and effect In his new book Realism and International Relations Patrick James gives us the most comprehensive reassessment of realism since the classic works of Vasquez When translated into a graphic format that facilitates comparative analysis realist theories collectively have much to contribute to scientific progress Research on International Affairs United States.
