Decision Theory and Rationality José Luis Bermúdez,2009-02-19 Decision Theory and Rationality offers a challenging new interpretation of one of the key theoretical tools in the human and social sciences This accessible book argues that contrary to orthodoxy in politics economics and management science we should not look to decision theory for a theory of rationality

The Medium and the Magician Paul Heyer,2005 Few twentieth century artists are renowned in such a variety of media as Orson Welles Well known for his work in film and theater as director actor and writer Welles s influence in the field of radio has often been overlooked for the more glamorous entertainment of his movies The Medium and the Magician is a comprehensive review of Welles s radio career devoted to assessing his radio artistry and influence in the field Paul Heyer offers a new look at the infamous War of the Worlds panic broadcast and a discussion of how Welles s use of sound in radio influenced his motion pictures Desiderata ,1929 Broome Stages Clemence Dane (pseud. van Winifred Ashton.),1960

Clemence Dane Louise McDonald,2020-08-31 This feminist investigation of the works of Clemence Dane joins the growing body of research into the relationship of female authored texts to the ideology and cultural hegemony of the Edwardian and inter war period An amalgam of single author study and thematic period analysis through sustained cultural engagement this book explores Dane s journalism drama and fiction to interrogate a range of issues inter war women s writing the Middlebrow feminism homo sexuality liberal politics domesticity and concepts of the spinster It examines form and a range of fictional genres drama bildungsroman detective fiction historical saga and gothic fiction It relates back to the genre writing of comparable authors These include Rosamond Lehmann Vita Sackville West Ivy Compton Burnett Dorothy Strachey Dodie Smith Rachel Ferguson May Sinclair Sylvia Townsend Warner Daphne Du Maurier G B Stern and detective writers Dorothy L Sayers Agatha Christie Gladys Mitchell Marjorie Allingham and Ngaio Marsh Offering a picture of an era focalised through Dane and contextualised through her journalism and the work of her female peers it argues that Dane is often markedly more radically feminist than these contemporaries She engages with broad issues of social justice irrespective of gender and her humanity is demonstrated through her sympathetic representations of marginalised characters of both sexes However she most specifically evidences a gender politics consistent with the fragmented and multifarious essentialist feminism that emerged following the Great War which esteemed womanly qualities of care and mothering but simultaneously valued female autonomy single status and professionalism Adopting the critical paradigms of domestic modernism and women s liminality the book will particularly focus on the trajectories of Dane s extraordinary modern heroines who possess qualities of altruism candour integrity imagination intuition resilience and rebelliousness Over the course of her work these fictional women increasingly challenge oppressive normative forms of domesticity traversing physical thresholds to create alternative domesticities in self defining living and working spaces
