Broken String The Last Words Of An Extinct People:

The Broken String Neil Bennun, 2004 The San people were a South African tribe who lived in the scrubland and communicated in a distinct click language During the nineteenth century they were labelled as sub human and hunted as animals by the Boers and the British sister in law Lucy Lloyd befriended some San bushmen and gradually began to document their language resulting in an extraordinary archive of material beautiful rock art and powerful fables The fables will run throughout the book

Customs and Beliefs of the |xam Jeremy Hollmann, 2022-10 More than 125 years ago a remarkable group of people came together in Cape Town to write down the language and beliefs of the xam people a Bushman group that once lived over much of South Africa The immensely valuable work of Wilhelm Bleek Lucy Lloyd and their xam teachers not only preserved a language now no longer spoken but also provided fascinating insights into xam cosmology First published in 2004 Customs and Beliefs of the xam reproduces Dorothea Bleek s selection of xam narratives from the well known Bleek and Lloyd Collection that was originally published in the journal Bantu Studies during the 1930s Collated and edited by Jeremy Hollman the extracts include detailed notes on each of the narratives as well as Bleek s sketch of xam grammar This substantially revised second edition integrates new scholarship on the Bleek and Lloyd archive and restores previously omitted material The introduction to each narrative has been expanded to contextualise it within the archive as a whole and where relevant reference it to the Notebook of which it is a part This includes meticulous cross referencing with the Bleek and Lloyd Collection catalogue code and the Notebook number and line reference Each of the texts has also been critically reassessed with additional editorial notes and commentaries in particular with respect to the xam words themselves and the ways in which they have been translated A synopsis of each narrative is provided in an appendix with cross references to the Bleek and Lloyd notebooks Customs and Beliefs of the xam second edition is an in depth detailed and authoritative resource that will be invaluable to scholars heritage workers and activists alike

Bushmen in a Victorian World Andrew Bank, 2006 Wilhelm Bleek was fascinated by African languages and set out to make sense of a complex and alien Bushman tongue At first Lucy Lloyd worked as his assistant but soon proved to be so gifted a linguist and empathetic a listener that she created a monumental record of Bushman culture Their informants were a colorful cast The teenager A kunta taught Bleek and Lloyd their first Bushman words and sentences The wise old man and masterful storyteller Kabbo opened their eyes to a richly imaginative world of myth and legend The young man Dia kwain explained traditional beliefs about sorcery while his friend Kasin spoke of Bushman medicines and poisons The treasures of Bushman culture were most fully revealed in conversations with a middle aged man known as Han kass o who told of dances songs and the meaning of images on rocks The human histories and relationships involved in this unique collaboration across cultures are explored in full for the first time in this remarkable narrative

Dictionary of African Biography Emmanuel Kwaku Akyeampong, Professor Henry Louis Gates, Jr., 2012-02-02 From the Pharaohs to Fanon Dictionary of African Biography provides a comprehensive overview of the lives of the men and women who shaped Africa's history. Unprecedented in scale, DAB covers the whole continent from Tunisia to South Africa, from Sierra Leone to Somalia. It also encompasses the full scope of history from Queen Hatsheput of Egypt (1490-1468 BC) and Hannibal the military commander and strategist of Carthage (243-183 BC) to Kwame Nkrumah of Ghana (1909-1972), Miriam Makeba and Nelson Mandela of South Africa (1918-1984).

San Representation Keyan Tomaselli, Michael Wessels, 2017-12-22. The San or Bushmen of southern Africa have exerted a fascination over generations of writers and scholars, from novelists and anarchists to ethnologists and geneticists, and also occupy a special place in the popular imagination as the First People and the contemporary remnant of spiritual and natural man. The ways in which particular groups of people from southern Africa have been traditionally categorised and positioned as objects of scrutiny by a range of academic disciplines is increasingly being contested and questioned. There is a growing awareness of the cultural, economic and genetic entanglement of the peoples of the region. This book examines how San and Khoe people are represented by others, as well as by those who identify as San or Khoe. The book interrogates the ways in which disciplines, through their methodologies and ways of authorising knowledge, not only discover or reveal knowledge but produce it in ways that involve complex and often ambiguous relationships with power structures and forms of intellectual, symbolic and cultural capital. One major trend that emerges is that the San and Khoe can no longer be seen as people of the past but have to be acknowledged as contemporary and socially situated individuals and communities who are increasingly contesting the representations which others have imposed on them. This book was originally published as a special issue of Critical Arts: A Journal of South North Cultural and Media Studies.

Fading Footprints José Manuel de Prada-Samper, 2025-03-12. That summer afternoon I had no way of knowing the book would radically alter my existence. Yet that proved to be the case. A wind that had begun to blow from a faraway place a long time ago had finally caught up with me. So writes folklorist Jos Manuel de Prada Samper about a chance discovery more than thirty years ago of an obscure book called Specimens of Bushman Folklore in a second-hand bookshop in England. Part historical detective story, part memoir, Fading Footprints traces the author's journey into the magical folklore of the xam hunter-gatherers of the Upper Karoo. Through archival research and on-field trips in South Africa, de Prada Samper reveals the tragic scope of the genocide of the xam San by European colonisers. However, he is also able to humanise the xam as he delves into the work and lives of researchers Wilhelm Bleek and Lucy Lloyd, who recorded the stories of San prisoners in Cape Town over more than a decade in the late 1800s. Determined to seek out the ancient folklore tales, the author travels to forgotten corners of the Northern Cape. There, he learns that many stories are still told to this day by farm workers, and that contrary to common belief, the culture and traditions of South Africa's first people are still very much alive. Their footprints may have faded, but they have not been erased.

Human-Animal Relationships in San and Hunter-Gatherer Cosmology, Volume I Mathias Guenther, 2019-08-21. Exploring a hitherto unexamined aspect of San cosmology, Mathias Guenther's two volumes on human animal relations in San cosmology link new Animism with Khoisan Studies providing valuable insights for Khoisan Studies and San culture but also for anthropological theory relational ontology folklorists historians literary critics and art historians In Volume I therianthropes and transformations two manifestations of ontological mutability that are conceptually and phenomenologically linked are contextualized in broader San myth Guenther explores the pervasiveness of human animal hybridity and transformation in San expressive culture myth stories and storytelling ludic dancing and art ancestral rock art and contemporary easel art ritual trance dance curing female and male rites of passage and hunting Transformation is shown to be experienced by humans particularly via rituals and dancing that evoke animal identity mergers but also by hunters who may engage with their prey animals in terms of sympathy and inter subjectivity particularly through the use of hunting medicines

Bushmen in the Tourist Imaginary Roie Thomas, 2016-12-14 This book is a semantic and semiotic analysis of tourism texts that represent specific groups of San or Bushmen in modern Botswana and is framed by postcolonial theory post tourism and resistance theories Critically the book demonstrates the power that both written and visual language can have upon consumers of texts It provides a case study of neo colonial exploitation and conversely reveals the efficacy of self representation for tourist consumption with an increasing number of San offering alternatives to an entrenched ethnic hegemony effecting gradual political and social recognition and autonomy As such the book is written in a spirit of optimism for the burgeoning self determination of a long marginalised group

Postcolonial Nostalgias Dennis Walder, 2010-11-17 This book offers an original and informed critique of a widespread yet often misunderstood condition nostalgia a pervasive human emotion connecting people across national and historical as well as personal boundaries Often seen as merely escapist nostalgia also offers solace and self understanding for those displaced by the larger movements of our time Walder analyses the writings of some of those entangled in the aftermath of empire tracing the hidden connections underlying their yearnings for a common identity and a homeland and their struggles to recover their histories Through a series of comparative reflections upon the representation in literary and related cultural forms of memory he shows how admitting the past into the present through nostalgia enables former colonial or diasporic subjects to gain a deeper understanding of the networks of power within which they are caught in the modern world and beyond which it may yet be possible to move Considering authors as varied as V S Naipaul J G Ballard Doris Lessing W G Sebald and Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie as well as versions of Bushman song Walder pursues the often wayward ambiguous paths of nostalgia as it has been represented beyond but also within Europe so as to identify some of those processes of communal and individual experience that constitute the present and by implication the future

Representing Bushmen Shane Moran, 2009 A detailed and compelling volume that contributes significantly to current trends in post apartheid scholarship Representing Bushmen draws on the work of Jacques Derrida Edward Said and Martin Bernal to show how the study of language was integral to the formation of racial discrimination in South Africa Author Shane Moran demonstrates the central role of literary history to the cultural racism and ideology that fed into apartheid by tracing the ethno aesthetic figuration of the Bushmen in W H I Bleek s theory of the origin of language Moran examines the gestation of colonial ideology and provocatively traces aspects of the post apartheid rhetoric of commemoration and national unity to their colonialist roots This detailed and compelling volume contributes significantly to current trends in post apartheid scholarship Moran emphasizes the need for a cautious interrogation of the colonial archive and scrutiny of critical discourses used by the would be postcolonial intellectual and poses a timely challenge to those committed to exorcising that legacy Shane Moran teaches at the University of KwaZulu Natal
