The Man Who Lost His Head Claire Huchet Bishop, 2024-10-08 A man searches for the right head on his shoulders in this funny parable that teaches kids ages 4-8 about problem solving with illustrations by Caldecott winner Robert McCloskey It's bad news when you wake up in the morning and find you've lost your head especially if it's an especially agreeable and handsome head but there you go such things happen In any case the man who loses his head in The Man Who Lost His Head isn't about to grin that is if he could grin and bear it No he'll make himself a new one and starting with a pumpkin and moving on to a parsnip and finally picking up a block of wood he sets about getting it just right Still for all his efforts it somehow isn't right It isn't the head he had before It turns out that only a brash bold boy can save the man who lost his head from losing it altogether Claire Huchet Bishop's charming parable is illustrated by the great Robert McCloskey whose books for children include One Morning in Maine Blueberries for Sal and the Caldecott Medal winning Make Way for Ducklings
