Buck Privates Come Home:

Abbott and Costello on the Home Front Scott Allen Nollen, 2009-06-08 As two of the most popular entertainers of the mid century film industry comic greats Bud Abbott and Lou Costello offered an essential balm to the American public following the sorrows of the Great Depression and during the trauma of World War II This is the first book to focus in detail on the immensely popular wartime films of Abbott and Costello discussing the production content and reception of 18 films within the context of wartime events on the home front and abroad The films covered include the service comedies Buck Privates In the Navy and Keep Em Flying more mainstream comic relief films such as Pardon My Sarong and Who Done It and post war experiments such as Little Giant and The Time of Their Lives More than 120 stills and lobby cards from the author's personal collection illustrate the text including many showing outtakes or deleted scenes The Annotated Abbott and Costello Matthew Coniam, Nick Santa Maria, 2023-01-11 Abbott and Costello were the most popular comedians of the 1940s with burlesque inspired routines that enthralled audiences on both radio and television Oddly their films have not received the same level of attention from critics and writers as those of other comedy teams This book is a scene by scene film by film guide to their movies making a compelling case for their inclusion at the very top of comic artists Featuring new research and some surprising revelations the book introduces newcomers to the delights of this uproarious team and provides confirmed fans with the ultimate companion to their work Also included is a foreword by John Landis the celebrated director and Abbott and Costello devotee Motion Pictures From the Fabulous 1940's Terry Rowan, 2016-01-06 In Europe the war was already old but while feeding nickels into roadhouse jukeboxes the Presidential conventions where the biggest question would be whether That Man in the White House would shatter yet another precedent and run for a third term To many Americans there seemed little else worth worrying about As with all time periods the 1940s had a set of specific fads that were popular around the country Read this book and find out about the films of this decade and more The Laughing Dead Cynthia J. Miller, A. Bowdoin Van Riper, 2016-05-20 Hybrid films that straddle more than one genre are not unusual But when seemingly incongruous genres are mashed together such as horror and comedy filmmakers often have to tread carefully to produce a cohesive satisfying work Though they date as far back as James Whale's Bride of Frankenstein 1935 horror comedies have only recently become popular attractions for movie goers In The Laughing Dead The Horror Comedy Film from Bride of Frankenstein to Zombieland editors Cynthia J Miller and A Bowdoin Van Riper have compiled essays on the comic undead that look at the subgenre from a variety of perspectives Spanning virtually the entire sound era this collection considers everything from classics like The Canterville Ghost to modern cult favorites like Shaun of the Dead Other films discussed include Abbott and Costello Meet Frankenstein Beetlejuice Ghostbusters House on Haunted Hill ParaNorman Scream Vampire's Kiss and Zombieland Contributors in this volume consider a wide array of comedic monster films from heartwarming The Book of Life to pitch dark The Fearless Vampire Killers and even grotesque Frankenhooker The Laughing

Dead will be of interest to scholars and fans of both horror and comedy films as well as those interested in film history and of course the proliferation of the undead in popular culture Lou's on First Chris Costello,Raymond Strait,2016-05-16 This intimate portrait of Lou Costello 1906 1959 offers a rare look at one of the most talented comedians of all time Starting in the 1930s Costello attained enormous fame touring the burlesque circuits with straight man Bud Abbott 1895 1974 Their live skits including Who s on First radio programs and films such as One Night in the Tropics Buck Privates Abbott and Costello Meet Frankenstein and In the Navy made comic history Behind the scenes however Costello faced numerous crises a bout with rheumatic fever that left him bedridden for months the drowning death of his young son and constant haggles with Universal Studios over its reluctance to adequately finance productions of Abbott and Costello films Lou s on First goes beyond Costello s clownish persona to explore his Pagliacci nature the private demons behind the happy public face the heartbreaking moments in an otherwise storybook marriage the business ventures soured by unscrupulous managers and the true nature of the breakup of his twenty one year partnership with Bud Abbott Art Directors in Cinema Michael L. Stephens,2015-09-02 Often forgotten among the actors directors producers and others associated with filmmaking art directors are responsible for making movies visually appealing to audiences As such they sometimes make the difference between a hit and a bomb This biographical dictionary includes not only the world s great and almost great artists but the unjustly neglected film designers of the past and present Among the more than 300 art directors and designers are pioneers from silent films designers from Hollywood and Europe s Golden Ages Asian figures post Golden Age personalities leaders of the European and American New Waves and many contemporary designers Each entry consists of biographical information an analysis of the director s career and important films and an extensive filmography including mentions of Academy Award nominations and winners The Encyclopedia of Film James Monaco,1991 An alphabetical reference on the major film figures stars producers directors writers et al past and present Each entry provides a substantial career biography and a complete listing of all films the individual has been involved with Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR
