Contemporary Gay American Poets and Playwrights Emmanuel S. Nelson, 2003-06-30 Gay presence is nothing new to American verse and theater Homoerotic themes are discernible in American poetry as early as the 19th century and identifiably gay characters appeared on the American stage more than 70 years ago But aside from a few notable exceptions gay artists of earlier generations felt compelled to avoid sexual candor in their writings Conversely most contemporary gay poets and playwrights are free from such constraints and have created a remarkable body of work This reference is a guide to their creative achievements Alphabetically arranged entries present 62 contemporary gay American poets and dramatists While the majority of included writers are younger artists who came of age in the post Stonewall U S some are older authors whose work has continued or persisted into recent decades A number of these writers are well known including Edward Albee Harvey Fierstein and Allen Ginsberg Others such as Alan Bowne Timothy Liu and Robert O'Hara merit wider recognition Each entry is written by an expert contributor and includes a biography a discussion of major works and themes an overview of the author's critical reception and primary and secondary bibliographies Fifty Modern and Contemporary Dramatists Maggie B. Gale, John F. Deeney, 2014-11-27 Fifty Modern and Contemporary Dramatists is a critical introduction to the work of some of the most important and influential playwrights from the 1950s to the present day The figures chosen are among the most widely studied by students of drama theatre and literature and include such celebrated writers as Samuel Beckett Caryl Churchill Anna Deavere Smith Jean Genet Sarah Kane Heiner Müller Arthur Miller Harold Pinter Sam Shephard Each short essay is written by one of an international team of academic experts and offers a detailed analysis of the playwright's key works and career The introduction provides an historical and theatrical context to the volume which provides an invaluable overview of modern and contemporary drama Stephens Plays: 4 Simon Stephens, 2015-05-28 Four plays inspired by and originating on the European stage from one of Britain's most important playwrights Three Kingdoms was presented at Teater NO99 in Tallinn Estonia on 17 September 2011 before opening at the Munich Kammerspiele Germany on 15 October 2011 An inconsolable mood of dread abandon violence and suspicion lurks beneath the show's skin of arty insouciance and at times the script attains a lyrical pitch of accusation against the West that quite overrides the flippancy There's something of value here Daily Telegraph The Trial of Ubu premiered at the Schauspielhaus Essen in a co-production with the Toneelgroep Amsterdam The play certainly gets at the banality of evil and evokes the slow sometimes dull often uncertain slog of justice Sunday Times Subtitled A Play For Young People Morning was developed in partnership between the Lyric Hammersmith London and the Junges Theater Göttingen The Financial Times described it as theatrically daring and uncompromising Carmen Disruption a reimagining of Bizet's opera premiered at the Deutsche Spielhaus in spring 2014 before its UK premiere at the Almeida London in April 2015 You can't help but be moved by the circumstances facing the five main characters There's an understanding and a compassion amid the bleakness And a
