

THE FIRST VOLUME of 4WD North Island opened up a whole new world of four-wheel driving to thousands of New Zealanders. It helped drivers of all ages and levels of ability to experience the magic of New Zealand's back country, and readers' enthusiastic feedback tells us it did so with extremely reliable, practical and interesting information in a user-friendly form.

Some staunch 4WD enthusiasts are interested in one extreme of four-wheel driving only: the rougher and tougher the better. But that is not the only way to go, and there are many who prefer to use their vehicle to get them to magical, out-of-the-way places without risking serious injury to person or vehicle. They want to get away from it all, but not to bush-bush all the way through dense gorse and sticky mud. This new collection of North Island tracks is specially compiled to offer simple and safe routes – trips that are more gentle but no less spectacular than those in Volume 1, and ideal for single-vehicle, family-type adventures.

Every route in this volume has something special about it. Some are places neglected or long overlooked. Magnificent bush and pastureland, historic sites, shady picnic spots, breath-taking scenery are all there in abundance, easily accessible along back-country roads and tracks. There is little opportunity to get stuck on these routes, little chance of getting into a dangerous situation. There is, however, much enjoyment to be had exploring back-country New Zealand in a vehicle designed so admirably for the purpose.

The routes are described in the same meticulous detail as in the first volume and, as before, each comes with a map and all the information needed to ensure that every journey is a successful – and safe – adventure. As well, the plain-English guide to competent off-road driving in Part One has been expanded and updated.

Keep a copy of this book in your glovebox: there are wonderful adventures to be had in New Zealand's beautiful back country – and you never know when the urge, or the opportunity to get off the beaten track is going to strike!
