

Horse Stencil

Remember to use a fairly dry brush when painting the design on the cake and allow each color to dry completely before adding another color.

Ingredients

1/2 round cake
1/2 cup buttercream
sprinkles
1 cup marzipan
1 cup yellow fondant
food colorings: yellow, brown, black, red, orange and blue

Equipment

1/2 round cake board
fine paint brush
child's scissors
1/2 yard ribbon
candles

1 Split and fill the cake with buttercream. Place on the cake board and brush with food-sprinkles glue. Cover with a layer of marzipan then yellow fondant. With the bottom fondant, roll into two thin ropes, long enough to go half way round the cake. Brush the lower edge of cake with a thin band of water. Lay the fondant around the cake and press the joints together. Make a pattern in the border with the decorative handle of a spoon. Leave to dry overnight.

2 If you do not have a stencil, make one by tracing a simple design onto a thin piece of card, then cut out the shape with a sharp knife. Place the stencil of the horse in the center of the cake. With a fairly dry brush (do not use the brush too wet or the color will run under the stencil) gently brush over the parts you want to color first. Allow these to dry completely before adding another color otherwise the colors will run into each other. Clean the stencil between colors.

3 Complete the picture then carefully paint on the lettering. Tie the ribbon around the sides of the cake and place the candles on top.
