Lost Department Stores of San Francisco Anne Evers

Hitz, 2020-03-02 In the late nineteenth century San Francisco's merchant princes built grand stores for a booming city each with its own niche For the eager clientele a trip downtown meant dressing up hats gloves and stockings required and going to Blum's for Coffee Crunch cake or Townsend's for creamed spinach The I Magnin empire catered to a selective upper class clientele while middle class shoppers loved the Emporium department store with its Bargain Basement and Santa for the kids Gump's defined good taste the City of Paris satisfied desires for anything French and edgy youth oriented Joseph Magnin ensnared the younger shoppers with the latest trends Join author Anne Evers Hitz as she looks back at the colorful personalities that created six major stores and defined shopping in San Francisco

A Cultural History of Jews in California Bruce Zuckerman, William Deverell, Lisa Ansell, 2009 With this volume of the Casden Annual Review we continue our policy of focusing on a single topic and in this case the topic we have turned to is quite literally close to home the Jewish role in California life The aim of this volume is to stress the cultural aspects of the Jewish experience of coming to and living in the Golden State While we cannot hope to present in this limited venue a comprehensive and detailed history of Jews in California per se it is our goal to consider a number of insightful perspectives on how the Jews who settled in California helped shape the Golden State's culture and were in turn themselves molded by cultural influences that were uniquely Californian While this volume looks at the Jewish experience in California in general nonetheless particular emphasis is placed on Southern California We begin our cultural history at a crucial moment in California history the mid nineteenth century in the after glow of the California Gold Rush where we encounter a European Jewish emigrant fresh off the boat who can and did get a chance to make a fortune in the pueblo of Los Angeles and in doing so helped define what California is We conclude it with a personal meditation from one of the latest group of refugees to come to the west the Iranian Jews who were forced out of their ancient homeland some thirty years ago and who found in Southern California a particularly hospitable yet no less difficult place to transplant their cultural roots In between we are treated to a few choice snapshots of how life developed and changed for Jews in California as California itself evolved and grew We firmly believe that there is something special about the Jewish role in California and even more so in Southern California that here on the lower left coast Jews have had an Americanization experience that is significantly different from that which Jews have had elsewhere in the USA Conversely Southern California would be quite a different place without the Jews who made it their home
