Name Your Story Lauren Cook,2017-03-30 Young adults feel a lot of pressure these days Get into the best college win the soccer tournament and land the dream internship if you want to be worthy Sound familiar With all this stress its no wonder that students are saying they feel depressed anxious or overwhelmed at an alarmingly high rate What is especially worrisome is that many of these students are too afraid to seek help Clearly its time for a change Lauren Cook provides an intentional space where young adults can learn about mental health in a safe way Heres what you can expect An overview of signs symptoms of depression anxiety eating disorders substance abuse and other conditions How to get help if you feel stressed scared or unwell How to talk with friends family members and partners if youre concerned about them and their wellbeing What to do if you or someone you know is feeling suicidal Resources to guide you to further information and support Lauren also emphasizes the need for self care We need to put on our own oxygen mask first before we can help others By focusing on gratitude optimism mindfulness and remembering how to play Lauren reminds us how to prioritize our own well being from a proactive stance

Digital Mental Health Research: Understanding Participant Engagement and Need for User-centered Assessment and Interventional Digital Tools Abhishek Pratap,Patricia A.Arean,Benjamin Nelson,Brenna Renn,Abigail Ortiz,2023-08-15 Mental health researchers are increasingly looking towards digital health tools to gather day to day lived experiences of people living with mental health conditions by using apps and wearable devices complementing episodic clinical assessments One of the key goals of collecting longitudinal real world multimodal data RWD is to help build personalized computational models that may help explain the heterogeneity in clinical outcomes mechanisms of action and pathophysiology of mental health disorders across individuals

Sociology of Mental Health Robert J. Johnson,R. Jay Turner,Bruce G. Link,2014-08-25 This volume provides an overview of mental health research conducted by sociologists It discusses dominant themes such as stress the community and mental life family structure social relations and recovery The unique contribution of sociology to the study of mental health has a long history stretching from the very foundations of modern sociology Yet it was only twenty years ago that the Section on Sociology of Mental Health of the American Sociological Association was formed largely in response to a burgeoning rise in the sum and significance of research in the field Today the section is a large and vibrant one with its own journal Society and Mental Health This book explores several of the themes that have occurred during that period providing both perspectives of the past and prospects for the future The volume is timely following closely the 20th anniversary of the section s formation Its coverage of key issues and its advancement of the scholarly debates on these issues will prove valuable to students and senior scholars alike
