Activating Critical Thinking to Advance the Sustainable Development Goals in Tourism Systems Karla A. Boluk, Christina T. Cavaliere, Freya Higgins-Desbiolles, 2021-05-12 Activating Critical Thinking to Advance the Sustainable Development Goals in Tourism Systems focuses on the role of critical thinking and inquiry in the implementation of the 2030 Sustainable Development Goals SDGs in tourism systems The impetus for the development of this book emerged from the declaration by the United Nations UN General Assembly of 2017 as the International Year of Sustainable Tourism for Development This declaration purposely positions tourism as a tool to advance the universal 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development and the 17 SDGs thus mutually serving as an opportunity and responsibility to appraise from a critical lens what the SDGs signify and how they can be understood from multiple perspectives The chapters in the book foster the next phase of sustainable tourism scholarship that actively considers the interconnections of the UN s SDGs to tourism theory and praxis and activates critical thinking to analyze and advance sustainability in tourism systems It articulates the need for the academy to be more intrinsically involved in ongoing iterations of multilateral accords and decrees to ensure they embody more critical and inclusive transitions toward sustainability as opposed to market driven neoliberal directives The contributions in this book encourage various worldviews challenging shaping and more critically reflecting the realities of global communities as related to and impacted by sustainable tourism development The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Sustainable Tourism
