Assessing Democracy Assistance The Case Of Romania:

Assessing Democracy Assistance Thomas Carothers, 2013-01-25 In recent years assistance aimed at promoting democracy abroad has become a major component of U S foreign aid and of the U S government s post Cold War policy of seeking to enlarge the international community of democratic nations Despite its rapid growth however democracy assistance remains poorly understood in practice and its value is frequently questioned This landmark study an examination of U S democracy assistance efforts in Romania is the first comprehensive analysis of the workings and failings of U S democracy assistance in one country Based on the author s extensive field research the study provides widely applicable answers to key questions about the value strategies methods and future of such assistance Democracy Assistance Peter Burnell, 2013-10-23 This examination of how Western governments support democracy worldwide considers how countries use this aid Attention is paid to post conflict situations and semi authoritarian regimes where democratization has stalled and international support of democratic decentralization is assessed Romania Since 1989 Henry F. Carey, 2004-01-01 The most comprehensive study of Romanian politics ever published abroad this volume represents an effort to collect and analyze data on the complex problems of Romania s journey from sultanistic national communism to a yet unreached democratic government Asia's New Multilateralism Michael J. Green, Bates Gill, 2009 Traditionally stability in Asia has relied on America s bilateral alliances with Japan Australia and the Republic of Korea Yet in recent years emergent and more active multilateral forums such as the Six Party Talks on North Korea and the East Asia Summit have taken precedence engendering both cooperation and competition while reflecting the local concerns of the region Some are concerned that this process is moving toward less inclusive bloc based talking shops and that the future direction and success of these arrangements along with their implications for global and regional security and prosperity remain unclear The fifteen contributors to this volume all leading scholars in the field provide national perspectives on regional institutional architecture and their functional challenges They illuminate areas of cooperation that will move the region toward substantive collaboration convergence of norms and strengthened domestic institutions They also highlight the degree to which institution building in Asia a region composed of liberal democracies authoritarian regimes and anachronistic dictatorships has become an arena for competition among major powers and conflicting norms and assess the future shape of Asian security architecture Promoting Party Politics in Emerging Democracies Peter Burnell, Andre W. M. Gerrits, 2013-09-13 This book offers a critical and comparative examination of international support to political parties and party systems in emerging and prospective new democracies in several world regions It combines the insights of a strong international grouping of leading academics and pioneering doctoral studies and draws on extensive new field work inquiries The wide ranging coverage pools evidence from countries in Europe and Eurasia Africa East Asia and Central America The book shows how far international support still has to go if it is to achieve its aims of helping party politics make a

Stemplowski,2010 Reproducing Gender Susan Gal,Gail Kligman,2021-04-13 The striking fact that abortion was among the first issues raised after 1989 by almost all of the newly formed governments of East Central Europe points to the significance of gender and reproduction in the postsocialist transformations The fourteen studies in this volume result from a comparative collaborative research project on the complex relationship between ideas and practices of gender and political economic change The book presents detailed evidence about women s and men s new circumstances in eight of the former communist countries exploring the intersection of politics and the life cycle the differential effects of economic restructuring and women s public and political participation Individual contributions on the former German Democratic Republic Poland the Czech Republic Slovakia Hungary Serbia Romania and Bulgaria provide rich empirical data and interpretive insights on postsocialist transformation analyzed from a gendered perspective Drawing on multiple methods and disciplines these original papers advance scholarship in several fields including anthropology sociology women s studies law comparative political science and regional studies The analyses make clear that practices of gender and ideas about the differences between men and women have been crucial in shaping the broad social changes that have followed the collapse of communism In addition to the editors the contributors are Eleonora Zieli ska Eva Maleck Lewy Myra Marx Ferree Sharon Wolchik Irene D lling Daphne Hahn Sylka Scholz Mira Marody Anna Giza Poleszczuk Katalin Kov cs M nika V radi Julia Szalai Adriana Baban Ma gorzata Fuszara Laura Grunberg Zorica Mrsevi Krassimira Daskalova Joanna Goven and Jasmina Luki

Civic Engagement, Civil Society And Philanthropy in the USA, Romanian & Mexico Dr. Olga Magdalena Lazin,2018 Decentralized Globalization cites analysis and data proving the effectiveness of all Free Trade Agreements especially within NAFTA It has done a world of good California is perfectly intertwined with the Mexican economy the balance struck being a perfect model for the rest of the World The race for Free Trade agreements and elimination of tariff has started long time ago with the creation of the EU and it works Civic society keeps the government honest and clamors to take into account the non governmental interest groups E g to reform Constitutions Too many countries will need to change from their judicial systems from guilty until proven innocent to innocent until proven guilty which should be the norm in the twenty first Century

Imitation and Politics Wade Jacoby,2001 Following World War II a poorly funded piecemeal effort to transfer British and American institutions into West Germany resulted in many positive changes for that nation s citizens After reunification however a more ambitious well funded and systematic effort to establish West German institutions in the former GDR has been less effective Through a close analysis of these two cases Wade Jacoby explores the conditions under which one society can serve as a model for the reshaping of another In the initial transfer Jacoby finds Allied occupying forces sought to build institutions in Germany that were the functional equivalents of ones they valued at home They encouraged the development of selected German organizations that became co architects of the postwar society Several decades later by contrast policymakers in Bonn used exact rather than functional imitation and they ignored regional interests when redesigning East German society For both cases Jacoby focuses on attempts to reform industrial relations and secondary education For innovations to be pulled in from abroad Jacoby argues local civic groups must participate in and benefit from the institution building process In addition the state imposing the transfer must have a flexible strategy By looking at international examples Jacoby provides further evidence that political imitation is at heart a process of coalition building

The Power and Limits of NGOs Sarah E. Mendelson, John K. Glenn, 2002-09-11 Since the end of the Cold War a virtual army of nongovernmental organizations NGOs from the United States Britain Germany and elsewhere in Europe have flocked to Central and Eastern Europe and Eurasia These NGOs are working on such diverse tasks as helping to establish competitive political parties elections and independent media as well as trying to reduce ethnic conflict This important book is among the few efforts to assess the impact of these international efforts to build democratic institutions The case studies presented here provide a portrait of the mechanisms by which ideas commonly associated with democratic states have evolved in formerly communist states revealing conditions that help as well as hurt the process
