Bad Shaman Blues:

Bad Shaman Blues W. N. Herbert, 2006 Bad Shaman Blues are what we sing in middle age when our visions and our virtues seem far away They also lament the role of contemporary poetry reached for in trauma otherwise ignored The poet as shaman cuts a reduced and comic figure which immediately suggests W N Herbert Packing his medicine pouch with classical lyric and barbarian spell the Scot explores his border territories Hadrian s Wall becomes a mirror through which to embark on an absurd shamanic flight to naturally Siberia Bad Shaman Blues is a Through the Looking Glass book in which the familiar and the foreign confront one another Sofia and Novosibirsk Crete and Kolkatta are all distorted in its hall of mirrors In the textual underworld of the Scots tradition literary ghosts are stalked by critical machines Herbert s Bad Shaman Blues presents the conventional poetry volume with its doppelganger dark destabilising daft and was shortlisted for the TS Eliot Prize as well as being a Poetry Book Society Recommendation The Apothecary's Chest Fabienne

Collignon, Konstantina Georganta, Anne-Marie Millim, 2009-03-26 The Apothecary s Chest Magic Art and Medication was a one day symposium held at the University of Glasgow on November 24 2007 The symposium called for a discussion on the evolution of the notions of mysticism knowledge and superstition in the way they are intertwined in both science and the literary imagination in the figure of healers such as the apothecary the alchemist the shaman There were three main areas of interest The first involved traditional perceptions of physicians who combined knowledge and superstition and thus bordered in their practices on the sphere of the occult The second theme evolving from the first proposed an inquiry of the overlapping interests and processes of science magic and prophecy as well as of the implications and consequences of a privileged access to medical knowledge while the third subject of discussion concentrated on the development of the symbolism of the healer in literature history philosophy of science anthropology theology film and art The twelve papers included in this volume papers presented by doctoral candidates and young scholars from across a range of geographical regions and disciplines result in a collection of approaches to an investigative field with topics ranging from mystical traits of mundane materials to the origins of the occult and gender struggles The thirteenth and final essay included in the volume Professor Bill Herbert s From Mere Bellies to the Bad Shaman is an exploration of the modern role of the contemporary poet in the form of an extended conversation initiated at the closing of the conference when Professor Herbert was asked to combine a poetry reading with a few observations on the relationship between the poet and the shaman In Person Neil Astley, 2008 Thirty poets from around the world read to you in person This is a new concept in publishing your own personal poetry festival brought into your home Each poet reads to you for about ten minutes up to half a dozen poems chosen from across the range of their work In Person is a collaboration between Bloodaxe Books and award winning film maker Pamela Robertson Pearce Her style of filming combines directness and simplicity sensitivity and warmth the perfect combination for these intimate readings It is as if the poet were sitting in the room with you reading just to you and sometimes saying a few things about the poems Apart from one recording taken from a live public performance all the films present informal one to one readings They enhance your appreciation of the poetry You hear how the poems sound you see how the poets read and present their work T S Eliot once described poetry as one person talking to another while W H Auden believed it was essential to hear poetry read aloud for no poem which when mastered is not better heard than read is good poetry In Person presents the oral art of poetry in that spirit There are four hours of readings on two DVDs pouched inside the back cover and all the poems are printed in this book In Person celebrates 30 years of poetry from a pioneering press Founded in 1978 Bloodaxe has published nearly a thousand titles by three hundred writers Until now you wouldn't be able to see or hear readings by many of Bloodaxe's international range of poets In Person makes that possible for the first time presenting readings by 30 essential voices from Britain Ireland America Spain Hungary Palestine Pakistan China New Zealand and the Caribbean Four out of the 30 short films present the poets work bilingually Menna Elfyn's reading alternates between her Welsh poems and their English translations Joan Margarit reads in Catalan in tandem with his translator Anna Crowe reading her English translations Palestinian poet Taha Muhammad Ali reads in Arabic and then re-inhabits each poem as it is read in English by his translator Peter Cole Yang Lian introduces his work in English and reads the poems in Chinese This anthology presents all their poems in both languages in a parallel text format enabling you to follow either language as the poems are read on the film All the other readings are in English only and in many varieties of English which will add greatly to your enjoyment and appreciation of the poetry not just poems read in Scottish Welsh and Irish English by Jackie Kay W N Herbert Gwyneth Lewis Brendan Kennelly and Micheal O Siadhail but also George Szirtes Hungarian inflected English Benjamin Zephaniah's melding of Jamaican and Birmingham and the Caribbean lilt of John Agard and James Berry The musical range of American voices is just as diverse ranging from urban Detroit Philip Levine to the Ozark Mountains C D Wright There's also a bonus track a short film of Bloodaxe's first poet Ken Smith made by Ivor Bowen just before Ken's untimely death
