Power, Protection and Magic in Thailand Craig J. Reynolds, 2019-10-22 This biographical study of an unusual southern policeman explores the relationship between religion and power in Thailand during the early twentieth century when parts of the country were remote and banditry was rife Khun Phan 1898 2006 known as Lion Lawman sometimes used rather too much lethal force in carrying out his orders He was the most famous graduate of a monastic academy in the mid south whose senior teachers imparted occult knowledge favoured by fighters on both sides of the law Khun Phan imbibed this knowledge to confront the risks and uncertainty that lay ahead and bolster his confidence and self reliance for his struggle with adversaries Against the background of national events the story is rooted in the mid south where the policeman was born and died Based on a wide range of works in Thai language on field trips to the region and on interviews with local and regional scholars as well as the policeman's descendants this generously illustrated book accompanied by short video clips brings to life the distinctive environment of the lakes district on the Malay Peninsula Capitalism Magic Thailand Peter A Jackson, 2021-12-13 By studying intersections among new cults of wealth ritually empowered amulets and professional spirit mediumship which have emerged together in Thailand's dynamic religious field in recent decades Capitalism Magic Thailand explores the conditions under which global modernity produces new varieties of enchantment Bruno Latour's account of modernity as a condition fractured between rationalizing ideology and hybridizing practice is expanded to explain the apparent paradox of new forms of magical ritual emerging alongside religious fundamentalism across a wide range of Asian societies In Thailand novel and increasingly popular varieties of ritual now form a symbolic complex in which originally distinct cults centred on Indian deities Chinese gods and Thai religious and royal figures have merged in commercial spaces and media sites to sacralize the market and wealth production Emerging within popular culture this complex of cults of wealth amulets and spirit mediumship is supported by all levels of Thai society including those at the acme of economic and political power New theoretical frameworks are presented in analyses that challenge the view that magic is a residue of premodernity placing the dramatic transformations of cultic ritual centre stage in modern Thai history It is concluded that modern enchantment arises at the confluence of three processes neoliberal capitalism's production of occult economies the auraticizing effects of technologies of mass mediatization and the performative force of ritual in religious fields where practice takes precedence over doctrine The MAGIC background of Pearl Harbor United States. and gender studies This wide spectrum of scholarly approaches encompasses chapters dealing with the convergences of time and the human psyche time and the body time and memory time and trauma time and change time and cultural reproduction time and language time and the city and time and identity It transpires that the imaginary refigurations of time more often than not constitute resistance against the linearity of chronometric time represented by institutions capitalism government and power and attempts to colonize the human psyche In attempting to assault this hegemony of linear time literary cinematographic and cultural practice enacts exploding temporalities to reflect the multifacetedness and multidirectionality of the human experience of time
