

The original manuscript of this piece, which was first published as Clavierstück in A Moll, "Piano Piece in A Minor," also had a dedication: Für Elise am April 27, 1810 zur Erinnerung von L. v. Beethoven, "For Elise on April 27, 1810, as a remembrance of L. v. Beethoven." No one knows who she was, but her first name was given a measure of immortality through this composition, which has remained one of the master's most popular short piano pieces.

FÜR ELISE

WoO 59

Poco moto

The musical score for "Für Elise" is presented in five systems, each with a treble and bass staff. The tempo is marked "Poco moto". The dynamics include pp (pianissimo) at the beginning and mf (mezzo-forte) in the middle section. The score includes various musical notations such as slurs, ties, and fingering numbers (1-5). The piece concludes with a repeat sign and two endings.

* In most modern editions, this note appears as a D instead of an E (here and in subsequent similar passages). In the original edition and in the only known Beethoven autograph sketch, the note appears as an E throughout the composition.
