A Postmodern Reader Joseph Natoli, Linda Hutcheon, 1993-06-29 These readings are organized into four sections The first explores the wellsprings of the debates in the relationship between the postmodern and the enterprise it both continues and contravenes modernism Here philosophers social and political commentators as well as cultural and literary analysts present controversial background essays on the complex history of postmodernism The readings in the second section debate the possibility or desirability of trying to define the postmodern given its cultural agenda of decentering challenging even undermining the guiding master narratives of Western culture The readings in the third section explore postmodernism's complicated complicity with these very narratives while the fourth section moves from theory to practice in order to investigate in a variety of fields the common denominators of the postmodern condition in action

Beginning Postmodernism, 2Nd Ed. Tim Woods, 2010-01-01 New World Order of Postmodernism in the Plays of Harold Pinter Saumya Rajan, 2018-07-06 The book reconnoiters the New World Order of Postmodernism in five plays The Room 1957 The Birthday Party 1957 The Caretaker 1960 The Homecoming 1965 and Celebration 2000 of Harold Pinter With culturally structured incomprehensibly manipulated dual and fragmented characters Harold Pinter analyses the ambiguities of political system It is perhaps the System that forcibly drags Stanley to a world of systems in The Birthday Party The situation of Ruth in The Homecoming clearly indicates the inevitable grip of this System The last play Celebration overtly ridicules the very political system we approve of wherein the strategy consultants and the corporate people define the organized mechanism of this SYSTEM The internalization of power which the power structures of societies and politics possess appears largely in his plays providing postmodernism its duality Pinter offers us a true picture of our postmodernist culture an apocalyptic world at the edge of civilization
