Antonio in Polesine. Archeologia e storia di un monastero estense Chiara Guarnieri, 2006-06-01 Attraverso i risultati dell'indagine archeologica condotta dalla Soprintendenza per i Beni Archeologici dell'Emilia Romagna in occasione dei lavori di restauro e ristrutturazione viene ricostruita la storia del Monastero di S. Antonio in Polesine uno dei complessi monastici pi antichi di Ferrara e l'unico con continuità di vita dal medioevo fino ai nostri giorni. Il risultato complessivo esito assai riuscito di uno sforzo organizzativo e scientifico condotto in maniera egregia da Chiara Guarnieri: un affresco composito in cui l'analisi tradizionale dei reperti e dei contesti di scavo compito primario dell'archeologia si sposa con il loro inserimento nel contesto storico e monumentale del complesso monastico in un arco cronologico che va dal XIV al XVIII secolo.

Art and Love in Renaissance Italy Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), Kimbell Art Museum, 2008. Many famous artworks of the Italian Renaissance were made to celebrate love, marriage and family. They were the pinnacles of a tradition dating from early in the era of commemorating betrothals, marriages and the birth of children by commissioning extraordinary objects: maiolica, glassware, jewels, textiles, paintings that were often also exchanged as gifts. This volume is the first comprehensive survey of artworks arising from Renaissance rituals of love and marriage and makes a major contribution to our understanding of Renaissance art in its broader cultural context. The impressive range of works gathered in these pages extends from birth trays painted in the early fifteenth century to large canvases on mythological themes that Titian painted in the mid 1500s. Each work of art would have been recognized by contemporary viewers for its prescribed function within the private domestic domain.

BOOK JACKET Italian Renaissance Ceramics British Museum, Dora Thornton, Timothy Wilson, 2009. A superb catalogue of the British Museum collection of maiolica and other Italian Renaissance pottery published in two volumes with a slipcase, ribbon and cloth binding. The British Museum collection of Italian Renaissance ceramics is one of the most important and most comprehensive anywhere in the world. Apart from containing many works of great artistic beauty, it is unequalled for its high proportion of signed, marked, dated and armorial pieces crucial for scholarly study of the subject. This is the first systematic catalogue of the collection. The 495 detailed entries cover the period from 1400 to 1700 and include maiolica, incised slipware and the rare Medici porcelain made in the groundbreaking Granducal workshop in Florence in the late 16th century. Every item is illustrated at least once and most twice in colour. Particular attention is given to patronage: the collection includes works made for such eminent patrons as Pope Leo X and Isabella d'Este to the relationship with painting and other arts and to the history of collecting and the role of the British Museum collection in developing the international study of the subject. The catalogue entries incorporate the results of a long programme of scientific analysis of the clays used by Renaissance potters. The book will also contain the fullest bibliography of the subject ever published.
