Before The Blood Tribunal:

Before the Blood Tribunal Rudolf Gustav Wobbe, Jerry Borrowman, 1992 Trials of War Criminals Before the Nuremberg Military Tribunals Under Control Council Law No. 10, Nuernberg, October 1946-April 1949 International Military Tribunal, 1949 Trials of War Criminals Before the Nuernberg Military Tribunals Under Control Council Law No. 10, Nuremberg, October 1946-April, 1949 ,1949 Trials of War Criminals Before the Nuernberg Military Tribunals Under Control Council Law No. 10, Nurenberg, October 1946-April, 1949 ,1949 Trials of War Criminals Before the Nuernberg Military Tribunals Volume III Various, 2023-09-03 Excerpt In April 1949 judgment was rendered in the last of the series of 12 Nuernberg war crimes trials which had begun in October 1946 and were held pursuant to Allied Control Council Law No 10 Far from being of concern solely to lawyers these trials are of especial interest to soldiers historians students of international affairs and others The defendants in these proceedings charged with war crimes and other offenses against international penal law were prominent figures in Hitler s Germany and included such outstanding diplomats and politicians as the State Secretary of the Foreign Office von Weizsaecker and cabinet ministers von Krosigk and Lammers military leaders such as Field Marshals von Leeb List and von Kuechler SS leaders such as Ohlendorf Pohl and Hildebrandt industrialists such as Flick Alfried Krupp and the directors of I G Farben and leading professional men such as the famous physician Gerhard Rose and the jurist and Acting Minister of Justice Schlegelberger In view of the weight of the accusations and the far flung activities of the defendants and the extraordinary amount of official contemporaneous German documents introduced in evidence the records of these trials constitute a major source of historical material covering many events of the fateful years 1933 and even earlier to 1945 in Germany and elsewhere in Europe The Nuernberg trials under Law No 10 were carried out under the direct authority of the Allied Control Council as manifested in that law which authorized the establishment of the Tribunals The judicial machinery for the trials including the Military Tribunals and the Office Chief of Counsel for War Crimes was prescribed by Military Government Ordinance No 7 and was part of the occupation administration for the American zone the Office of Military Government OMGUS Law No 10 Ordinance No 7 and other basic jurisdictional or administrative documents are printed in full hereinafter The proceedings in these trials were conducted throughout in the German and English languages and were recorded in full by stenographic notes and by electrical sound recording of all oral proceedings The 12 cases required over 1 200 days of court proceedings and the transcript of these proceedings exceeds 330 000 pages exclusive of hundreds of document books briefs etc Publication of all of this material accordingly was quite unfeasible This series however contains the indictments judgments and other important portions of the record of the 12 cases and it is believed that these materials give a fair picture of the trials and as full and illuminating a picture as is possible within the space available Copies of the entire record of the trials are available in the Library of Congress the National Archives and elsewhere In some cases due to time limitations errors of one sort or another have crept into the translations which were available to the Tribunal In other cases the same document appears in different trials or even at different parts of the same trial with variations in translation For the most part these inconsistencies have been allowed to remain and only such errors as might cause misunderstanding have been corrected

The Venezuelan Arbitration Before the Hague Tribunal, 1903 Permanent Court of Arbitration,1905 Provisional Measures before International Courts and Tribunals Cameron A. Miles,2017-01-26 Since the decision of the International Court of Justice in LaGrand Germany v United States of America the law of provisional measures has expanded dramatically both in terms of the volume of relevant decisions and the complexity of their reasoning Provisional Measures before International Courts and Tribunals seeks to describe and evaluate this expansion and to undertake a comparative analysis of provisional measures jurisprudence in a range of significant international courts and tribunals so as to situate interim relief in the wider procedure of those adjudicative bodies The result is the first comprehensive examination of the law of provisional measures in over a decade and the first to compare investor state arbitration jurisprudence with more traditional inter state courts and tribunals

Justice for Victims before the International Criminal Court Luke Moffett,2014-06-27 Many prosecutors and commentators have praised the victim provisions at the International Criminal Court ICC as justice for victims which for the first time include participation protection and reparations This book critically examines the role of victims in international criminal justice drawing from human rights victimology and best practices in transitional justice Drawing on field research in Northern Uganda Luke Moffet explores the nature of international crimes and assesses the role of victims in the proceedings of the ICC paying particular attention to their recognition participation reparations and protection The book argues that because of the criminal nature and structural limitations of the ICC justice for victims is symbolic requiring State Parties to complement the work of the Court to address victims needs In advancing an innovative theory of justice for victims and in offering solutions to current challenges the book will be of great interest and use to academics practitioners and students engaged in victimology the ICC transitional justice or reparations

Fact-Finding before International Tribunals Richard Lillich,2025-01-27 This volume is the seminal work on fact finding and international tribunals It addresses the many questions raised in recent cases before the International Court of Justice the Iran United States Claims Tribunal the European Court of Justice various international administrative tribunals human rights courts and commissions Its 15 chapters introduced by a perceptive essay by Judge Schwebel for the International Court of Justice have been written by present or former members of such international bodies leading lawyers who have appeared before them and distinguished academic lawyers from the United States and abroad Published under the Transnational Publishers imprint
