uncovers the enormous appeal of this acclaimed director The Philosophy of Ang Lee Robert Arp, Adam Barkman, James McRae, 2013-04-11 Ang Lee b 1954 has emerged as one of cinema's most versatile critically acclaimed and popular directors. Known for his ability to transcend cultural and stylistic boundaries, Lee has built a diverse oeuvre that includes films about culture clashes and globalization: Eat Drink Man Woman 1994 and The Wedding Banquet 1993, a period drama Sense and Sensibility 1995, a martial arts epic Crouching Tiger Hidden Dragon 2000, a comic book action movie Hulk 2003, and an American western Brokeback Mountain 2005. The Philosophy of Ang Lee draws from both Eastern and Western philosophical traditions to examine the director's works. The first section focuses on Taoist, Confucian, and Buddhist themes in his Chinese language films, and the second examines Western philosophies in his English language films, but the volume ultimately explores how Lee negotiates all of these traditions strategically, selecting from each in order to creatively address key issues. With interest in this filmmaker and his work increasing around the release of his 3D magical adventure The Life of Pi 2012, The Philosophy of Ang Lee serves as a timely investigation of the groundbreaking auteur and the many complex philosophical themes that he explores through the medium of motion pictures. Ang Lee Clifford Mills, 2023 Oscar winning director Ang Lee's work captures cultural, racial, sexual, and generation clashes from China to Wyoming. Ang Lee Ellen Cheshire, 2001 The first book to be published about the work of Ang Lee, this is an accessible guide to all Lee's films from his early Taiwan productions such as Pushing Hands to his most recent success, the internationally acclaimed Crouching Tiger Hidden Dragon.

In The Scene: Ang Lee Ellen Cheshire, 2021-05-04 Ang Lee came to the fore in the 1990s as one of the second wave of Taiwanese directors. After studying at New York University, Lee returned to Taiwan where, over the next three consecutive years, he directed three comedy dramas focusing on aspects of the East vs. West culture and its impact on the family: Pushing Hands, The Wedding Banquet, Eat Drink Man Woman. Considering Lee's background, it is surprising that he should be approached to direct the most British of novels, Jane Austen's Sense and Sensibility. It was a tremendous critical and commercial success. Since then, Lee's projects have been both eclectic and striking: he took on the American suburbs of the 1970s and the war-torn American South of the 1860s in The Ice Storm and Ride With The Devil. But it was his triumphant return to the East with Crouching Tiger Hidden Dragon which has transformed him into an internationally successful director. He followed this with his somewhat flawed foray into the Marvel Universe with Hulk. His heartbreaking adaptation of Annie Proulx's short story Brokeback Mountain brought him international critical and commercial success. But forever the genre and language hopping director, Lee's next films were much smaller in scale and reach: Lust Caution, a Chinese erotic espionage thriller, and Taking Woodstock, American comedy drama. His most recent film was an adaptation of Yann Martel's The Life of Pi, which pushed the boundaries of CGI animation and showed how a director with great visual flair could enhance a film with 3D. His continual desire for embracing new technology divided critics and audiences for Billy Lynn's Long Halftime Walk, an adaptation of Ben Fountain's 2012 Iraq war set novel, and The Gemini Man with Will Smith. Ang Lee Ang Lee, 2019-11-14. Collected interviews with the director of such films as Brokeback Mountain, Crouching Tiger, Hidden Dragon, and Life of Pi. Two Films by Ang Lee Ang Lee, 1994-08-15. Eat Drink Man Woman, The Wedding Banquet. Visuality and Identity Shu-mei Shih, 2007-06-19. Shu-mei Shih inaugurates the field of Sinophone studies in this vanguard excursion into sophisticated cultural criticism situated at the intersections of Chinese studies, Asian American studies, diaspora studies, and transnational studies. Arguing that the visual has become the primary means of mediating identities under global capitalism, Shih examines the production and circulation of images across what she terms the Sinophone Pacific, which comprises Sinitic language-speaking communities such as the People's Republic of China, Taiwan, Hong Kong, and Chinese America. This groundbreaking work argues that the dispersal of the so-called Chinese peoples across the world needs to be reconceptualized in terms of vibrant or vanishing communities of Sinitic language cultures rather than of ethnicity and nationality.
