Wild Animals in Circuses Great Britain: Department for Environment, Food and Rural Affairs, 2013-04-16 The British circus industry dates back over two centuries and for many years wild animals were an integral part of the circus experience In modern times the plight of animals has become a concern and today the view of the public as well as bodies such as the RSPCA is that travelling circuses are no place for wild animals and the Government proposes primary legislation as set out in the draft Bill in this document This legislation will end the use of wild animals in travelling circuses in this country and help ensure the nation's international reputation as a leading protector of animals continues into a new global era As the process of introducing primary legislation is necessarily a long one the Government has already introduced the Welfare of Wild Animals in Travelling Circuses England Regulations 2012 which came into force on 20 January 2013 These Regulations will protect wild animals which stay in circuses in the short term Two circuses so far have been licensed However when it comes into force the ban in this draft Bill will supersede the Regulations
