

An aerial photograph of a vast, arid landscape. The ground is cracked and dry, with patches of sparse, low-lying vegetation. In the lower right corner, a small, dark, rectangular structure, possibly a tent or a small building, is visible. The overall scene suggests a harsh, desert environment.

Exploring Christian Doctrine Tony Lane,2014-02-04 This reliable and highly readable textbook provides comprehensive coverage of core Christian beliefs Based on the author s introductory Christian doctrine course the book rests firmly on biblical foundations while providing a balanced discussion of areas where evangelicals disagree The text includes essay topics and further reading suggestions Handbook of Christian Prophetism in Africa ,2025-08-14 More than half a century has passed since the first monographs on African Christian prophetism were published The prophetic element was only the most dramatic and prominent part of developments that sought to bring the biblical material alive in ways that had not been experienced in the ecclesiology of Western mission Christianity The ministries of African charismatic figures of the early 20th century were oriented towards the biblical phenomenon of the prophetic and the related issue of divine or faith healing sometimes even to the neglect of the use of bio medical resources The developments have been interrogated in religious studies theology and the sociology and psychology of religion showing how important these churches have been in the African public sphere Christian Nationalism and Democracy in Ghana Jeffrey Haynes,2025-06-10 This book investigates the impact of Christian nationalism on democracy in Ghana arguing that proponents of a specific Christian worldview seek to remake the country according to their values and beliefs Christian nationalism is a significant religious and political ideology in several African countries not only Ghana but also Zambia and Nigeria In Ghana prominent Christian nationalists encouraged by sections of the American Christian Right cultivate political influence with powerful political elites and by developing a high media profile to promote their views and increase their numbers of followers The book examines specific examples of Christian nationalism s impact on Ghana s democracy the national cathedral as a symbol of national unity and social cohesion anti Muslim pronouncements threatening inter faith harmony and attacks on Ghana s LGBTQ community Overall the book argues that Christian nationalism is a specific threat to Ghana s three decade long liberal democracy with the aim of undermining the constitutional equality and human rights of some Ghanaians in favour of a specific Christian worldview This book will be of interest to researchers of religion and politics in Africa with Ghana serving as an important case study for those interested in the regional impact of Christian nationalism

A Cultural History of Firearms in the Age of Empire Karen Jones, 2016-03-16 Firearms have been studied by imperial historians mainly as means of human destruction and material production Yet firearms have always been invested with a whole array of additional social and symbolical meanings By placing these meanings at the centre of analysis the essays presented in this volume extend the study of the gun beyond the confines of military history and the examination of its impact on specific colonial encounters By bringing cultural perspectives to bear on this most pervasive of technological artefacts the contributors explore the densely interwoven relationships between firearms and broad processes of social change In so doing they contribute to a fuller understanding of some of the most significant consequences of British and American imperial expansions Not the least original feature of the book is its global frame of reference Bringing together historians of different periods and regions A Cultural History of Firearms in the Age of Empire overcomes traditional compartmentalisations of historical knowledge and encourages the drawing of novel and illuminating comparisons across time and space

African Traditions in the Study of Religion in Africa Ezra Chitando, 2016-04-01 The historiography of African religions and religions in Africa presents a remarkable shift from the study of Africa as Object to Africa as Subject thus translating the subject from obscurity into the global community of the academic study of religion This book presents a unique multidisciplinary exploration of African traditions in the study of religion in Africa and the new African diaspora The book is structured under three main sections Emerging trends in the teaching of African Religions Indigenous Thought and Spirituality and Christianity Hinduism and Islam Contributors drawn from diverse African and global contexts situate current scholarly traditions of the study of African religions within the purview of academic encounter and exchanges with non African scholars and non African contexts African scholars enrich the study of religions from their respective academic and methodological orientations Jacob Kehinde Olupona stands out as a pioneer in the socio scientific interpretation of African indigenous religion and religions in Africa This book is to his honour and marks his immense contribution to an emerging field of study and research

Traditionalists, Muslims, and Christians in Africa Prince Sorie Conteh, 2009 As is the case for most of sub Saharan Africa African Traditional Religion ATR is the indigenous religion of Sierra Leone When the early forebears and later progenitors of Islam and Christianity arrived they met Sierra Leone indigenes with a remarkable knowledge of God and a structured religious system Successive Muslim clerics traders and missionaries were respectful of and sensitive to the culture and religion of the indigenes who accommodated them and offered them hospitality This approach resulted in a syncretistic brand of Islam In contrast most Christian missionaries adopted an exclusive and insensitive approach to African culture and religiosity Christianity especially Protestantism demanded a complete abandonment of African culture and religion and a total dedication to Christianity This attitude is continued by some indigenous clerics and religious leaders to such an extent that Sierra Leone Indigenous Religion SLIR and its practitioners continue to be marginalised in Sierra Leone s interreligious dialogue and cooperation Although the indigenes of Sierra Leone were and continue to be hospitable to Islam and Christianity and in spite of the fact that SLIR shares affinity with Islam and Christianity in many theological and practical issues and even though there are many Muslims and Christians who still hold on to traditional spirituality and culture Muslim and Christian leaders of these immigrant religions are reluctant to include Traditionalists in interfaith issues in the country The formation and constitution of the Inter Religious Council of Sierra Leone IRCSL which has local and international recognition did not include ATR These considerations then beg the following questions Why have Muslim and Christian leaders long marginalized ATR its practices and practitioners from interfaith dialogue and cooperation in Sierra Leone What is lacking in ATR that continues to prevent practitioners of Christianity and Islam from officially involving Traditionalists in the socioreligious development of the country This book investigates the reasons for the exclusion of ATR from interreligious dialogue cooperation and ATR s relevance and place in the socioreligious landscape of Sierra Leone and the rest of the world It also discusses possible ways for ATR s inclusion in the ongoing interfaith dialogue and cooperation in the country this is important because people living side by side meet and interact personally and communally on a regular basis As such they share common resources communal benefits and the joys crises and sorrows of life The social and cultural interaction and cooperation involved in this dialogue of life are what compel people to fully understand the worldviews of their neighbours and to seek out better relationships with them Most of the extant books and courses about interreligious encounters and dialogue deal primarily with the interaction between two or more of the major world religions Christianity Islam Judaism Hinduism Buddhism and Sikhism This book fills a gap in the study of interreligious dialogue in Africa by taking into consideration the place and relevance of ATR in interreligious dialogue and cooperation in Sierra Leone It provides the reader with basic knowledge of ATR Islam and Christianity in their Sierra Leonean contexts and of interfaith encounters and dialogue among the three major faith traditions in Africa As such it provides for the first time a historical chronological and comparative study of interreligious encounters and dialogue among Traditionalists Muslims and Christians in Sierra Leone Traditionalists Muslims and Christians in Africa is an important reference for scholars researchers religious leaders missionaries and all who are interested in interfaith cooperation and dialogue especially among all three of Africa s major living religions ATR Islam and Christianity Biblical, Traditional, and Theological Framework for Understanding Christian Prophetism in Ghana Today Daniel Nii Aboagye Aryeh, 2019-01-03 The basis for this project is to verify and determine the extent to which contemporary prophetic ministry in Ghana appropriates prophetism in the early church Corpus Paulinum and traditional prophetism in Ghana The spirit of prophecy which was believed to have ceased in Judaism and during the intertestamental period has now been restored at the inauguration of Christianity Notwithstanding Paul gave stipulations for prophets and prophecy in the church in 1 Corinthians 14 This confirms that prophecy was a common phenomenon in the early church and Pauline communities Contemporary prophetic ministry in Ghana claimed to have conformed to Pauline stipulations concerning prophets and prophecy in the church but what is their level of conformity Contemporary prophetic ministry is becoming popular due to its appeal and compatibility with religious worldviews and its pragmatic outlook that resonates with the Ghanaian phenomenon of religion As an adherent of the Akan traditional religion would go to a religious intermediary for ebisa literally to inquire or ask into present or future happenings contemporary prophets have positioned themselves to be agents of ebisa in Ghanaian Christianity This book explores biblical and traditional understandings of prophetism that have influenced contemporary Christian understanding of prophets and prophecy in the church
