(Lectures, Sermons and Addresses Delivered by Bishop Joost de Blank when Archbishop of Cape Town.). Joost DE BLANK (Archbishop of Capetown.), 1964 The Confrontation Between the Archbishop of Cape Town, Joost de Blank, and the South African Government on Racial Policies, (1957-1963) Victor C. Paine, Joost De Blank, 1978 Hong Kong's Last English Bishop Philip L. Wickeri, 2021-10-04 In Hong Kong's Last English Bishop Philip L. Wickeri explores the life and times of John Gilbert Hindley Baker who served as Bishop of the Anglican Diocese of Hong Kong and Macao from 1966 to 1981 Baker lived through exciting times as a missionary in wartime and revolutionary China as a priest in America during the early years of the Cold War and as a mission leader in the Church of England when churches in many parts of the world were becoming independent before returning to Hong Kong where he was elected bishop He was a faithful correspondent and a prolific writer throughout his life offering a personal commentary on the churches and the societies in which he lived Wickeri has made extensive use of Baker's writings and other archival materials to provide a vivid picture of his life and work Bishop Baker was instrumental in working for reconciliation after the 1967 riots expanding the work of the diocese and engaging Hong Kong with the wider world In 1971 he opened a new era in the Anglican Communion by legally ordaining the first women priests This book is indispensable for understanding the development of the Hong Kong Sheng Kung Hui Anglican Church at a time when the growth of Hong Kong as a vibrant modern city was at its peak In this wide ranging and well informed book Philip Wickeri succeeds in telling the story of Gilbert Baker against the backdrop of the huge changes affecting China and Hong Kong through some of the most turbulent years of the twentieth century At once insightful and sensitive it will be required reading for those seeking to understand the complex move from colonial to post colonial forms of Anglican mission Mark D Chapman University of Oxford Wickeri masterfully reconstructs the life and times of a central participant in not only Chinese Anglicanism but also Hong Kong's transformation into a modern metropolis On China and social change Bishop Gilbert Baker held nuanced views many of which remain eminently relevant for our contemporary moment Brian Tsui Hong Kong Polytechnic University A History of Global Anglicanism Kevin Ward, 2006-11-23 Anglicanism can be seen as irredeemably English In this book Kevin Ward questions that assumption He explores the character of the African Asian Oceanic Caribbean and Latin American churches which are now a majority in the world wide communion and shows how they are decisively shaping what it means to be Anglican While emphasising the importance of colonialism and neo colonialism for explaining the globalisation of Anglicanism Ward does not focus predominantly on the Churches of Britain and N America nor does he privilege the idea of Anglicanism as an expansion of English Christianity At a time when Anglicanism faces the danger of dissolution Ward explores the historically deep roots of non Western forms of Anglicanism and the importance of the diversity and flexibility which has so far enabled Anglicanism to develop cohesive yet

multiform identities around the world The Living Church, 1957 South Africa: The Most Rev. Joost de Blank (Archbishop of Capetown), 2014 Archbishop Fisher, 1945-1961 Dr Andrew Chandler, Professor David Hein, 2012-08-01

Archbishop Fisher's archiepiscopate reflected the central issues of his time and place. It was Fisher who oversaw an immense programme of reforms which effectively recast the institutions of the Church of England for generations to come. It was Fisher who proved to be the essential architect, politician and diplomat behind the creation of a worldwide Anglican Communion. His determination to promote the development of relations with other churches produced a vital contribution to the cause of ecumenism which culminated in his momentous meeting with Pope John XXIII. Archbishop Fisher was a vigorous participant in the questions which defined national and international life. This book explores Fisher's influence on major contemporary issues and events including divorce law reform and capital punishment at home and the end of Empire and the most dangerous years of the Cold War abroad. This new biography establishes the continuing significance not only of the office of Archbishop in the Church but also of the Church at large in the tumultuous world of the later twentieth century. A final section of original source material includes letters, sermons and other writings bringing vividly to life the range and character of Fisher's public and private role.

British Sporting Relations with Apartheid South Africa Matthew P. Llewellyn, Toby C. Rider, 2024-11-25. The transnational anti-apartheid sport boycott of South Africa represented the most prominent extended and controversial anti-racism campaign in the history of sport. Spearheaded by prominent British religious and anti-colonial figures and exiled South Africans emboldened by communist and Global South support and legitimised by supranational political bodies such as the United Nations, the Organisation of African Unity and the Commonwealth, the sport boycott helped propel anti-apartheid out of relative obscurity and struck at the very heart of a cultural practice that served an explicitly ideological function in Afrikaner society. Britain held a dichotomous even paradoxical role as both prosecutor and defender of white South Africa. This book utilises sport as a critical lens for understanding the dynamics and dichotomies of British attitudes towards the apartheid regime. Debates over whether to continue or to cut sporting links with apartheid South Africa proved bitterly divisive. The considerable weight the subject carried and the degree to which it saturated British political and social discourse for four decades speaks to its impact and importance. British Sporting Relations with Apartheid South Africa represents the first archival-based historical examination of Britain's sporting relations with South Africa throughout the apartheid era, 1948-1994. Situating the analysis within the shifting multiracial and multicultural landscapes of postcolonial Britain and within global political, cultural, sporting and ideological debates, the authors trace the origins and evolution of the transnational sport boycott and examine what inspired Britons to energise anti-apartheid sport campaigns and in contrast what drove many others to vehemently oppose them at every turn.
