Architecture Of The Arts And Crafts Movement:

Architecture and the Arts and Crafts Movement in Boston Maureen Meister, 2003 H Langford Warren 1857 1917 was an important link in the chain of individuals who contributed to the architectural practice theories of design and the teaching of architectural history in the United States at the turn of the twentieth century Best known in the Boston area Warren first worked under the renowned architect Henry Hobson Richardson before establishing his own practice Friends and colleagues during this period included Charles Eliot Norton the noted art historian and Harvard's Charles Herbert Moore a leading Ruskinian painter Hired by Harvard University in 1893 Warren developed its architectural curriculum In 1897 he helped found Boston's Society of Arts and Crafts At the time of his death in 1917 Warren was Dean of the School of Architecture at Harvard and President of the Society of Arts and Crafts At the turn of the century Warren's philosophical vision offered a conservative and ethnocentric perspective attractive to many Bostonians and to a significant segment of Americans nationwide According to this view English culture was the basis of American culture Through his work at Harvard and in the Arts and Crafts movement he articulated and promoted an aesthetic guided by an attachment to the past and he encouraged his students at Harvard to revive and reinterpret English and Anglo American models Another characteristic of Warren's aesthetic was restraint a quality generally attributed to the region's Puritan settlers Restraint also meant a rejection of both the lavish ornamentation of the Ecole des Beaux Arts in Paris and the more original styles such as Art Nouveau that were emerging at the turn of the century Following the ideals of John Ruskin William Morris and later leaders of the English Arts and Crafts movement Warren and his architect colleagues promoted a close collaboration with the craftsmen who enhanced their buildings The resulting building designs represent a significant contribution to the development of American Arts and Crafts architecture complementing the proto modern work of designers such as Frank Lloyd Wright In fact Arts and Crafts architecture in North America was extremely diverse Meister examines the greater complexity of this architecture by exploring the eclectic historicism of Warren a key figure in the movement that was centered in Boston The Arts & Crafts Movement Oscar Lovell Triggs, 2023-12-28 Have nothing in your house that you do not know to be useful or believe to be beautiful This quote alone from William Morris could summarise the ideology of the Arts Crafts movement which triggered a veritable reform in the applied arts in England Founded by John Ruskin then put into practice by William Morris the Arts Crafts movement promoted revolutionary ideas in Victorian England In the middle of the soulless Industrial Era when objects were standardised the Arts Crafts movement proposed a return to the aesthetic at the core of production The work of artisans and meticulous design thus became the heart of this new ideology which influenced styles throughout the world translating the essential ideas of Arts Crafts into design architecture and painting

Architecture of the Arts and Crafts Movement Peter Davey, 1980 Arts and Crafts Architecture Maureen Meister, 2014-11-04 This book offers the first full scale examination of the architecture associated with the Arts and Crafts movement that spread throughout New England at the turn of the twentieth century Although interest in the Arts and Crafts movement has grown since the 1970s the literature on New England has focused on craft production Meister traces the history of the movement from its origins in mid nineteenth century England to its arrival in the United States and describes how Boston architects including H H Richardson embraced its tenets in the 1870s and 1880s She then turns to the next generation of designers examining buildings by twelve of the region s most prominent architects eleven men and a woman who assumed leadership roles in the Society of Arts and Crafts founded in Boston in 1897 Among them are Ralph Adams Cram Lois Lilley Howe Charles Maginnis and H Langford Warren They promoted designs based on historical precedent and the region s heritage while encouraging well executed ornament Meister also discusses revered cultural personalities who influenced the architects notably Ralph Waldo Emerson and art historian Charles Eliot Norton as well as contemporaries who shared their concerns such as Louis Brandeis Conservative though the architects were in the styles they favored they also were forward looking blending Arts and Crafts values with Progressive Era idealism Open to new materials and building types they made lasting contributions with many of their designs now landmarks honored in cities and towns across New England
