Basileon A Magazine Of Kings College:

Basileon, 1974 Basileon King's College (University of Cambridge), 1974 More than Nine Lessons and Carols Allen Warren, 2025-04-15 A biographical study of Eric Milner White DSO 1884 1963 Dean of King's College Cambridge 1918 41 and Dean of York 1941 63 Anglo Catholic churchman collector restorer and aesthete The Knox Brothers Penelope Fitzgerald, 2013-09-14 Here is a biography whose eccentric genius perfectly matches that of its subjects Penelope Fitzgerald tells the lives of four extraordinary Englishmen her father and his brothers with style and wit Here is the story of a deeply fascinating family mind shared by four brothers and passed along to their remarkable biographer Women's University Fiction, 1880-1945 Anna Bogen, 2015-10-06 The rise of the middle classes brought a sharp increase in the number of young men and women able to attend university Developing in the wake of this increase the university novel often centred on male undergraduates at either Oxford or Cambridge Bogen argues that an analysis of the lesser known female narratives can provide new insights Basileon King's College (University of Cambridge), 1974 Victorian Periodicals Newsletter, 1979
Cambridge Magazine, 1914 Muse of Fire Michael Korda, 2024-04-16 The First World War comes to harrowing life through the intertwined lives of the soldier poets in Michael Korda's epic Muse of Fire Michael Korda the best selling author of Hero and Alone tells the story of the First World War not in any conventional way but through the intertwined lives of the soldier poets who came to describe it best and indeed to symbolize the war's tragic arc and lethal fury His epic narrative begins with Rupert Brooke the handsomest young man in England and perhaps its most famous young poet in the halcyon days of the Edwardian Age and ends five years later with Wilfred Owen killed in action at twenty five only one week before the armistice With bitter irony Owen's mother received the telegram informing her of his death on November 11 just as church bells tolled to celebrate the war's end Korda's dramatic account which includes anecdotes from his own family history not only brings to life the soldier poets but paints an unforgettable picture of life and death in the trenches and the sacrifice of an entire generation His cast of characters includes the young American poet Alan Seeger who was killed in action as a private in the French Foreign Legion Isaac Rosenberg whose parents had fled czarist anti Semitic persecution and who was killed in action at the age of twenty eight before his fame as a poet and a painter was recognized Robert Graves and Siegfried Sassoon whose friendship and friendly rivalry endured through long complicated private lives and finally Owen whose fame came only posthumously and whose poetry remains some of the most savage and heartbreaking to emerge from the cataclysmic war As Korda demonstrates the poets of the First World War were soldiers heroes martyrs victims their lives and loves endlessly fascinating that of Rupert Brooke alone reads like a novel with his journey to Polynesia in pursuit of a life like Gauguin's and some of his finest poetry written only a year before his tragic death Muse of Fire is at once a portrait of their lives and a narrative of a civilization destroying itself among the rubble shadows and the unresolved problems of which we still live from the revival of brutal trench warfare in Ukraine and in the Middle East Georgian Poetry 1911-22 Timothy

Rogers,2013-09-05 This set comprises 40 volumes covering 19th and 20th century European and American authors These volumes will be available as a complete set mini boxed sets by theme or as individual volumes This second set complements the first 68 volume set of Critical Heritage published by Routledge in October 1995
