of his Arctic whaling voyages into lengthy journals His scientific records comments on social and religious topics and his detailed descriptions of navigation and whaling are at the heart of this edited collection The Arctic Whaling Journals of William Scoresby the Younger \(1789-1857\) William Scoresby,2022-01-26 This is the third and final volume in the set of William Scoresby s journals It contains the unpublished accounts of his three voyages 1817 1818 and 1820 During the years of the voyages in this volume Scoresby s life changed profoundly An unsuccessful hunt for whales in 1817 led to a break with the Whitby shipowners and command of the Fame in 1818 in partnership with his father The partnership was a brief one and at the end of 1818 Scoresby broke with his father and moved to Liverpool finding new partners completing the writing of An Account of the Arctic Regions and watching the construction of his new ship the Baffin Meanwhile he suffered a severe financial loss and made a profound religious commitment After his first summer ashore for many years in 1819 he brought back to Liverpool in 1820 a full ship of seventeen whales despite being faced by mutineers in the crew who earlier had been involved in piracy in the Caribbean and apparently hoped to seize the Baffin and convey her and her valuable cargo to a foreign country In each of the journals Scoresby wrote detailed descriptions of his landings on Jan Mayen in 1817 western Spitsbergen in 1818 and the Langanes peninsula in northeast Iceland in 1820 The 1817 voyage when Scoresby and others found the Greenland Sea relatively free of ice involved him in the renewed British interest in arctic maritime exploration after the Napoleonic Wars The Introduction to this volume contains a major reappraisal of Scoresby s role especially in regard to his alleged mistreatment by John Barrow Second Secretary of the Admiralty The volume also contains an appendix by Fred M Walker on the building of wooden whaleships such as the Baffin that were capable of routine ice navigation under sail as far north as 80 N based on Scoresby s account as Owners Representative at the beginning of the 1820 journal The Arctic Whaling Journals of William Scoresby the Younger C.
