The Witch That Won't Burn F. J Haddley, 2022-11-28 A witch with untamed power A demon branded a traitor When their paths cross what seemed like the end suddenly becomes a new beginning For centuries their kinds have been at war sworn enemies whose history is stained with blood hatred and destruction But now with the world of magic unraveling and its source the very heart of magic itself the Root lost fate binds them together in an unpredictable way And one of them holds the key to restoring magic But at what cost Kaia is a witch but unlike any other witch in Oakwood Fall she has real powers Unfortunately she doesn t have much control over them and that s exactly what gets her in trouble one night at the Gathering where she meets a mysterious girl All Kaia can see are the girl s obsidian eyes and her cold touch on Kaia s shoulders feels like much needed help But not all help comes free and definitely never from a demon Jaya hates being called a demon But isn t that exactly what she is now Branded a traitor for a crime she didn t commit she has lost everything The witches destroyed her world yet she is the one paying the price But fate is cruel though wise and magic has a will of its own As the only witness to her world s downfall Jaya is now the only one who can find the Root and restore magic perhaps even erase the traitor s brand cast upon her and her kind But as irony would have it she needs a witch for that And not just any witch she needs Kaia In a world where witches burn and demons lose trust is dangerous friendship is unlikely and love what Impossible But some witches don t burn And for some demons losing one battle means winning something far greater than they ever imagined Love
