James Vance Marshall

Bush Walkabout:

Bush Walkabout Axel Poignant, 19?? Walkabout James Vance Marshall, 2012-01-17 A plane crashes in the vast Northern Territory of Australia and the only survivors are two children from Charleston South Carolina on their way to visit their uncle in Adelaide Mary and her younger brother Peter set out on foot lost in the vast hot Australian outback They are saved by a chance meeting with an unnamed Aboriginal boy on walkabout He looks after the two strange white children and shows them how to find food and water in the wilderness and yet for all that Mary is filled with distrust On the surface Walkabout is an adventure story but darker themes lie beneath Peter's innocent friendship with the boy met in the desert throws into relief Mary's half adult anxieties and the book as a whole raises questions about what is lost and may be saved when different worlds meet And in reading Marshall's extraordinary evocations of the beautiful yet forbidding landscape of the Australian desert perhaps the most striking presence of all in this small perfect book we realize that this tale a deep yet disturbing story in the spirit of Adalbert Stifter's Rock Crystal and Richard Hughes's A High Wind in Jamaica is also a reckoning with the mysteriously regenerative powers of death The New York Times Guide to the Best 1,000 Movies Ever Made Peter M. Nichols, 2004-02-21 From the film critics of The New York Times come these uncut original reviews of the most popular and influential movies ever made from the Talkies to blockbuster megahits like Chicago and The Wizard of Oz from timeless classics like Casablanca and Notorious to beloved foreign films by Truffaut and Kurosawa Fellini and Almodovar The reviews eloquent incisive and intuitive reflect Hollywood history at its best must have reading for movie lovers or Students In addition this essential volume includes Full cast and production credits for every movie The 10 Best lists for every year from 1931 to the present An index of films by genre and an index of foreign films by country of origin This edition is thoroughly updated to include all the important movies of the past several years as well as a new introduction by A Times film critic A O Scott Intersections Helen Ennis, 2004 Using photographs from the National Library's collection Ennis introduces us to Australia from the 1840s to the present as we have never seen it before at peace and at war and in all its splendour and ordinary dailiness as seen through the cameras of Charles Bayliss Samuel Sweet Peta Hill and many others Large format The Last Rhinos Lawrence Anthony, Graham Spence, 2012-07-03 An inspiring story of conservation in the face of brutal war and bureaucratic quagmires The Last Rhinos will move animal lovers everywhere Conservationist Lawrence Anthony's South African wildlife reserve protects elephants and many other animals including several endangered Southern White Rhinos When he learned that the Northern White Rhino was on the very brink of extinction courtesy of a flourishing black market for rhino horns in the Far East he knew he had to act If the world lost the sub species it would be the largest land mammal since the woolly mammoth to go extinct The Northern White Rhino's last refuge was in an area in the Democratic Republic of Congo controlled by the infamous Lord's Resistance Army one of the most vicious rebel groups in the world In the face of unmoving government bureaucracy Anthony made a perilous journey deep into the jungle to try to find and convince them to help save the rhino King of the Outback Bill King, 2011 The life of the legendary pioneer of outback travel the man who opened up Australia to adventure travel A modern day explorer who took everyday Australians along for the ride Bill King is the pioneer who put the Australian outback on the map for both local and international tourists Through an enterprise founded on hope and grit now operating as AAT Kings he opened up a completely new branch of Australian tourism Thousands of Australians have experienced the adventure of a lifetime in Bill's capable hands often walking in the footsteps of explorers such as Burke and Wills Leichhardt Sturt and Stuart Eccentric drivers mad passengers and sticky situations abound against the backdrop of the glorious Australian outback Bill and his tour groups sometimes got lost bogged or stranded sometimes even scared out of their wits but there was always a fierce determination to bring the show back home Bill never lost a passenger or brought one to harm though by heck they did sometimes try his monumental patience Very Big Journey Hilda Jarman Muir, 2004 Hilda Muir was born in Borroloola in the NT around 1920 She is one of the Stolen Generation Hilda was brought to Darwin and placed in Kahlin House for half caste children When she became of age she married Billy Muir when the Second World War came to Darwin she was evacuated to Brisbane with her children In 1995 Hilda was chosen along with others to present a writ to the High Court on behalf of the stolen generation In 1997 it was rejected The apology finally came on October 16 2001 by Claire Martin the Chief Minister of the Northern Territory Walkabout, 1961 Afterlives of Abandoned Work Matthew Harle, 2018-12-27 Afterlives of Abandoned Work considers the relevance of unfinished projects to literary history and criticism looking beyond famous posthumous work to investigate the abandoned everyday from scrapped plans and rejected ideas to half written novels or unfinished artistic works It traces how the reading of abandoned creative endeavor whether arriving in the form of a rejection letter a disagreement with a collaborator or the simple act of walking away from one's desk can change the way we think about cultural production the creative process and the intellectual construction of everyday life Over five distinct journeys through a variety of archives from major research libraries to the unique collections of individual enthusiasts Matthew Harle draws surprising connections between literary studies media studies and visual arts exploring unfinished projects from Thomas Pynchon Muriel Spark B S Johnson Harold Pinter and others Rooted in literary criticism Afterlives of Abandoned Work reads unbuilt buildings unfilmed screenplays and unpublished novels and radio sketches as forms of text that can help us consider the enduring fragmentation and anecdotal construction of cultural form as well as expand literary criticism's approach to the archive Our Multicultural Heritage, 1788-1945 National Library of Australia, 1995
