E. Groves. Martin and Margaret Wiesendanger, Curators of the Collection Martin Wiesendanger,Margaret Wiesendanger,1971 Louisiana Paintings of the Nineteenth Century Louisiana State University Library,1959 Arkansas Made: Photography, art Swannee Bennett,William B. Worthen,1990-01-01 1993 Award of Merit American Association for State and Local History A Southern Collection ,1993-02-01 A Southern Collection presents select masterworks from the permanent collection of the Morris Museum of Art on the occasion of the institution s inaugural exhibition Drawn from a comprehensive survey collection of painting in the South from the late eighteenth century to the present day the museum s opening exhibit explores an artistic terrain as rich and diverse as the South itself arranged in categories that reflect critical chronological developments in the art world A survey of painting activity in the South begins with the travels of itinerant portrait artists working prior to the Civil War At the same time landscape painting encompasses a sensitive response to the swamps bayous and fertile fields of the South Late in the nineteenth century strong and vivid genre painting competes with the nostalgic effects realized by Southern impressionists whose shimmering liquid images are invested with an elusive spirit of place In this century those strains of realism and naturalism that characterize the classic body of Southern writing appear in the representational art of painters who defied the modern abstract dictum And finally the exciting compelling works of a current generation of both self taught artists and sophisticated contemporary painters complete this fascinating though sometimes neglected chapter in American art history The South on Paper James C. Kelly,2000 Explores forty four southern artists and eighty of their works Artists in Ohio, 1787-1900 Mary Sayre Haverstock,Jeannette Mahoney Vance,Brian L. Meggitt,2000 A three volume guide to the early art and artists of Ohio It includes coverage of fine art photography ornamental penmanship tombstone carving china painting illustrating cartooning and the execution of panoramas and theatrical scenery A New Orleans Voudou Priestess Carolyn Morrow Long,2007-10-07 Against the backdrop of eighteenth and nineteenth century New Orleans A New Orleans Voudou Priestess The Legend and Reality of Marie Laveau disentangles the complex threads of the legend surrounding the famous Voudou priestess According to mysterious oft told tales Laveau was an extraordinary celebrity whose sorcery fueled influence extended widely from slaves to upper class whites Some accounts claim that she led the orgiastic Voodoo dances in Congo Square and on the shores of Lake Pontchartrain kept a gigantic snake named Zombi and was the proprietress of an infamous house of assignation Though legendary for an unusual combination of spiritual power beauty charisma showmanship intimidation and shrewd business sense she also was known for her kindness and charity nursing yellow fever victims and ministering to condemned prisoners and her devotion to the Roman Catholic Church The true story of Marie Laveau though considerably less flamboyant than the legend is equally compelling In separating verifiable fact from semi truths and complete fabrication Long explores the unique social political and legal setting in which the lives of Marie Laveau s African and European ancestors became intertwined Changes in New Orleans engendered by French and Spanish rule the Louisiana Purchase the Civil War Reconstruction and Jim Crow segregation affected seven generations of Laveau s family from enslaved great grandparents of pure African blood to great grandchildren who were legally classified as white Simultaneously Long examines the evolution of New Orleans Voodoo which until recently has been ignored by scholars
