Heller, 2007-06-30 Studies in the Making of the Early Hebrew Book is a collection of twenty four essays on various aspects of Hebrew book production in the 16th through 18th centuries The subject matter encompasses little known printing presses makers of Hebrew books and book arts The print shops were in such locations as Padua Freiburg im Breisgau Verona and the first presses in Livorno Among the makers of Hebrew books are a peripatetic printer a chief rabbi accused of plagiarism a convert to Judaism and a court Jew Book arts address the titling of Hebrew books dating by means of chronograms printers pressmarks mirror image monograms and the development of the Talmudic page The book is completed with miscellaneous but related articles on early Hebrew book sale catalogues worker to book production ratio in an eighteenth century press and an attempt to circumvent the Inquisition's ban on the printing of the Talmud in sixteenth Century Italy Remembered Words Alastair Fowler, 2021 A selection of essays written over Alastair Fowler's prestigious career combining celebrated works of literary criticism and previously unpublished pieces that reflect on developments in literary criticism over the last sixty years The Casa del Deán Penny C. Morrill, 2023-09-15 The Casa del Deán in Puebla Mexico is one of few surviving sixteenth century residences in the Americas Built in 1580 by Tomás de la Plaza the Dean of the Cathedral the house was decorated with at least three magnificent murals two of which survive Their rediscovery in the 1950s and restoration in 2010 revealed works of art that rival European masterpieces of the early Renaissance while incorporating indigenous elements that identify them with Amerindian visual traditions Extensively illustrated with new color photographs of the murals The Casa del De n presents a thorough iconographic analysis of the paintings and an enlightening discussion of the relationship between Tom s de la Plaza and the indigenous artists whom he commissioned Penny Morrill skillfully traces how native painters trained by the Franciscans used images from Classical mythology found in Flemish and Italian prints and illustrated books from France as well as animal images and glyphic traditions with pre Columbian origins to create murals that are reflective of Don Tom s s erudition and his role in evangelizing among the Amerindians She demonstrates how the importance given to rhetoric by both the Spaniards and the Nahuas became a bridge of communication between these two distinct and highly evolved cultures This pioneering study of the Casa del De n mural cycle adds an important new chapter to the study of colonial Latin American art as it increases our understanding of the process by which imagery in the New World took on Christian meaning
