The Long Journeys Home Nick Bellantoni, 2014-04-30 The moving stories of two Indigenous men in the United States and the return of their remains to their homelands Henry Opkahaia ca 1792-1818 Native Hawaiian and Itankusun Wanbli ca 1879-1900 Oglala Lakota lived almost a century apart Yet the cultural circumstances that led them to leave their homelands and eventually die in Connecticut have striking similarities Opkahaia was orphaned during the turmoil caused in part by Kamehameha's wars in Hawaii and found passage on a ship to New England where he was introduced and converted to Christianity becoming the inspiration behind the first Christian missions to Hawaii Itankusun Wanbli Christianized as Albert Afraid of Hawk performed in Buffalo Bill's Wild West to make a living after his traditional means of sustenance were impacted by American expansionism Both young men died while on their journeys to find fulfillment and both were buried in Connecticut cemeteries In 1992 and 2008 descendant women had callings that their ancestors wanted to come home and began the repatriation process of their physical remains Connecticut state archaeologist Nick Bellantoni oversaw the archaeological disinterment forensic identifications and return of their skeletal remains back to their Native communities and families The Long Journeys Home chronicles these important stories as examples of the wide-reaching impact of American imperialism and colonialism on Indigenous Hawaiian and Lakota traditions and their cultural resurgences in which the repatriation of these young men have played significant roles Bellantoni's excavations his interaction with two Native families and his participation in their repatriations have given him unique insights into the importance of heritage and family among contemporary Native communities and their common ground with archaeologists His natural storytelling abilities allow him to share these meaningful stories with a larger general audience Bellantoni recovers from obscurity the remarkable life journeys dreams and deaths of two Native men and the two worlds they lived in Paul Grant Costa Yale Indian Papers Project Based on meticulous forensic research Bellantoni's tale of two indigenous youth from different cultures and time periods and their struggles to survive cultural upheavals clearly reveals the chaotic effects of American colonialism on Native peoples The book is a major contribution to the field of Postcolonial Studies

Lakota Performers in Europe Steve Friesen, François Chladiuk, 2017-06-08 From April to November 1935 in Belgium fifteen Lakotas enacted their culture on a world stage Wearing beaded moccasins and eagle feather headdresses they set up tepees danced and demonstrated marksmanship and horse taming for the twenty million visitors to the Brussels International Exposition a grand event similar to a world's fair The performers then turned homeward leaving behind 157 pieces of Lakota culture that they had used in the exposition ranging from costumery to weaponry In Lakota Performers in Europe author Steve Friesen tells the story of these artifacts forgotten until recently and of the Lakota performers who used them The 1935 exposition marked a culmination of more than a century of European travel by American Indian performers and of Europeans' fascination with Native culture fanned in part by William F. Buffalo Bill Cody's Wild West from the late 1800s through 1913 Although European newspaper reports often stereotyped Native performers as savages American Indians were drawn to participate by the opportunity to practice traditional aspects of their culture earn better wages and see the world When the organizers of the 1935 exposition wanted to include an American Indian village Sam Lone Bear Thomas and Sallie Stabber Joe Little Moon and other Lakotas were eager to participate By doing this they were able to preserve their culture and influence European attitudes toward it Friesen narrates these Lakotas' experiences abroad In the process he also tells the tale of collector François Chladiuk who acquired the Lakotas' artifacts in 2004 More than 300 color and black and white photographs document the collection of items used by the performers during the exposition Friesen portrays a time when American Indians who would not long after return to Europe as allies and liberators in military garb appeared on the international stage as ambassadors of the American West Lakota Performers in Europe offers a complex view of a vibrant culture practiced and preserved against tremendous odds Artifacts from
